Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, an individual whose application for Wisconsin works (W-2) is not acted upon by the W-2 agency with reasonable promptness or is denied in whole or in part, whose benefit is modified or canceled, or who believes that the benefit was calculated incorrectly or that the employment position in which the individual was placed is inappropriate, may petition the W-2 agency for a review of that action or decision. With certain exceptions, the W-2 agency must grant the petition for review and the department of workforce development (DWD) may review the decision of the W-2 agency if the applicant or participant or the W-2 agency petitions DWD for a review of the W-2 agency's decision.

This bill permits an individual whose application for W-2 is denied in whole or in part, whose benefit is modified or canceled, or who believes that the benefit was calculated incorrectly or that the employment position in which the individual was placed is inappropriate, or that the employment position in which the individual was placed is inappropriate, to petition DWD for a review of the action or decision of the W-2 agency. With certain exceptions, DWD must give the individual an opportunity for a hearing. Under the bill, if a participant in the W-2 program requests a hearing before the effective date of the W-2 agency's action, or within 10 days after the mailing of the notice of the action, whichever is later, the participant's benefits may not be suspended, reduced or discontinued, except under limited circumstances, until DWD renders a decision after the hearing.

22 (b) The participant is notified of a change in his or her benefit while the hearing
23 decision is pending but the participant fails to request a hearing on the change.
