in the Senate or the Assembly (check only one). Only the requester under whose name the drafting request is entered in the LRB's drafting records may authorize the draft to be submitted. Please allow one day for the preparation of the required copies.

Redraft for Senate & Jacket 3/12/99

A revised draft will be submitted for your approval with changes incorporated.

3. Obtain FISCAL ESTIMATE NOW, prior to introduction

If the analysis indicates that a fiscal estimate is required because the proposal makes an appropriation or increases or decreases existing appropriations or state or general local government fiscal liability or revenues, you have the option to request the fiscal estimate prior to introduction. If you choose to introduce the proposal without the fiscal estimate, the fiscal estimate will be requested automatically upon introduction. It takes about 10 days to obtain a fiscal estimate. Requesting the fiscal estimate prior to introduction retains your flexibility for possible redrafting of the proposal.

If you have any questions regarding the above procedures, please call 266-3561. If you have any questions relating to the attached draft, please feel free to call me.

1 AN ACT to amend 457.16 (3) and 457.20 (2); and to create 457.11 of the statutes;
2 relating to: creating a marriage and family therapist training certificate and
3 changing the eligibility requirements for taking the examination for a marriage
4 and family therapist or professional counselor certificate.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, the professional counselor and marriage and family therapist sections of the examining board of social workers, marriage and family therapists and professional counselors (board) grant certificates that allow persons to use certain titles related to professional counseling and marriage and family therapy. To qualify for a certificate, a person must satisfy certain education, examination and supervised clinical practice requirements. However, a person may not take the examination that is required until after he or she satisfies the supervised clinical practice requirements.

Under this bill, a person may take the examination that is required for a professional counselor or marriage and family therapist certificate before he or she satisfies the supervised clinical practice requirements.

This bill also creates a marriage and family therapist training certificate (training certificate) that is granted by the marriage and family therapist section. A person is eligible for a training certificate if he or she submits an application, pays a fee and satisfies the same education requirements that are required for a marriage and family therapist certificate. In addition, he or she must be employed part time or full time, or have an offer of part time or full-time employment, as a marriage and family therapist in a supervised clinical marriage and family therapist practice, or in a position in which he or she will receive training and supervision that is equivalent to the training and supervision received in a supervised clinical marriage and family therapist practice.

Under the bill, the training certificate is valid for 24 months or until the person who holds the training certificate is no longer employed as a marriage and family therapist in a supervised clinical marriage and family therapist practice or an equivalent position, whichever is earlier. A person who holds a training certificate may use the titles "marriage and family therapist", "marriage and family counselor" or any similar title, and is considered to be certified as a marriage and family therapist for the purpose of any law governing marriage and family therapists.

Finally, the bill provides that a training certificate cannot be renewed.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
