

1999 SENATE BILL 418

March 1, 2000 – Introduced by Senator PLACHE, cosponsored by Representative WARD. Referred to Committee on Human Services and Aging.

1 AN ACT to amend 48.833 of the statutes; relating to: the placement of a child
2 for adoption outside of the county where the child is located.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, the department of health and family services (DHFS), a county department of human services or social services (county department) or a child welfare agency may place a child for adoption in a licensed foster home without a court order if DHFS, the county department or the child welfare agency is the guardian of the child or makes the placement at the request of another agency that is the guardian of the child. Current law requires DHFS, a county department or a child welfare agency, before placing a child for adoption, to consider the availability of a placement for adoption with a relative of the child. In addition, current federal law prohibits a state that is receiving federal foster care and adoption assistance moneys under Title IV–E of the federal Social Security Act from denying or delaying the adoptive placement of a child when an approved family is available outside of the jurisdiction that is responsible for handling the case of the child. This bill prohibits DHFS, a county department or a child welfare agency from denying or delaying the placement of a child for adoption when a family that has been approved as an appropriate adoptive placement for the child is available outside of the county where the child is located.
