Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate  This bill will have a small workload impact on District Attorneys Offices in Wisconsin in two ways. First it will create a new class of victims who are covered by the victims rights statutes: those person who have their property damages by an OWI driver. Currently those persons are not considered victims. Thus the victim/witness staff and prosecutors in DA offices will have a workload increase. Second, in those counties with municipal courts, the DA office would now handle cases brought under this new statute not the municipal attorney.
Long-Range Fiscal Implications None
