

DRAFTER'S NOTE FROM THE
LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE BUREAU

LRB-1219/1dn
PJD:kmg&jg:jf

December 10, 1998

This joint resolution also contains a schedule for special and extraordinary sessions. This will eliminate the need for some, but not all, special and extraordinary adjournment resolutions by building their content into the session schedule. OK?

This joint resolution keeps alive and carries over to the May 2 to 4 floorperiod proposals passed by one house and considered but not adversely and finally disposed of by the other house as of March 30. Under Joint Rule 83 (4) (b), the proposals that are carried over to the veto review floorperiod are those that are not yet agreed to by both houses and have been passed by one house and concurred in, as amended, by the other house. This joint resolution provides that the veto review floorperiod cannot consider those proposals. The standard for the May 2 to 4, 2000, floorperiod carries over more proposals than the standard for the veto review floorperiod. OK?

The March 7 to 30, 2000, floorperiod will be the last general-business floorperiod. OK?
