CORRESPONDENCE/MEMORANDUMDEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Date: September 8, 1998

To: Drafting Attorneys
Legislative Reference Bureau

From: Jack Benjamin
Department of Justice

Subject: 1999-01 BUDGET BILL: Appropriation Language for Office of Crime
Victim Services

The Department of Justice requests that language be drafted for the 1999-01 budget bill, to create a new appropriation relating to federal moneys to be received and administered by our Office of Crime Victim Services. Currently, OCVS has two federal appropriations, which are linked to victim compensation and victim assistance, respectively. The Office needs, and does not currently have, "generic" authority to receive and spend federal moneys. For example, as a departmental management prerogative, we have moved administrative responsibility for federal moneys received under the Children's Justice Act, from Legal Services to Crime Victim Services. Because OCVS lacks the right type of federal appropriation language, the budget, etc., has had to stay in our appropriation (1)(m).

As a remedy, we request the creation of a PR-F continuing appropriation, entitled Federal aid or Federal aid, state operations. Its Chapter 20 designation should be something like 20.455(5)(ma). The Chapter 20 language could read something like (ma) Federal aid, state operations. All moneys received as federal aid, as authorized by the governor under s. 16.54, for state operations.

Please direct any questions to me at 7-6714. When ready, the draft language should be forwarded to Kelly Kennedy (6-1221) in the Attorney General's capitol office. Thanks.
