1 AN ACT ^{Don't Gen Cat} relating to: transfer of the national and community service board
 2 from the department of administration to the department of ^{Commerce} industry, labor and
 3 ~~human relations~~

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

STATE GOVERNMENT
 OTHER STATE GOVERNMENT

at least

Under current law, the national and community service board consists of 16 voting members who are appointed by the governor to represent various interests. The board is attached to the department of administration (DOA) but exercises policy-making functions independently of DOA. The board utilizes federal moneys and moneys that it receives from gifts, grants and bequests to provide assistance to persons who operate service programs that address unmet human, educational, environmental or public safety needs.

This bill transfers this board to the department of ^{Commerce} industry, labor and human relations (DILHR), effective on the day the bill becomes law. (Under the bill, DILHR is renamed the department of industry, labor and job development (DILJD) on July 1, 1996). Under the bill, the board is attached to ^{the department of commerce} DILHR in the same way that it is currently attached to DOA.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly enact as follows:

1999 BILL

1 AN ACT (generate) relating to: transfer of the national and community service board
2 from the department of administration to the department of commerce.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

~~STATE GOVERNMENT~~ ✓

~~OTHER STATE GOVERNMENT~~

Under current law, the national and community service board consists of at least 16 voting members who are appointed by the governor to represent various interests. The board is attached to the department of administration (DOA) but exercises policy-making functions independently of DOA. The board utilizes federal moneys and moneys that it receives from gifts, grants and bequests to provide assistance to persons who operate service programs that address unmet human, educational, environmental or public safety needs.

This bill transfers this board to the department of commerce, effective on the day the bill becomes law. Under the bill, the board is attached to the department of commerce in the same way that it is currently attached to DOA.
