Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, the state superintendent of public instruction (state superintendent) administers the following alcohol and other drug abuse prevention and intervention grant programs for school districts: the drug abuse resistance education program, the grants for families and schools together program, the pupil alcohol and other drug abuse program projects and the after-school and summer school program. Current law limits the amount the state superintendent may award under each grant program.

X
Y This bill ~~repeals and recreates~~ ^{consolidates} the alcohol and other drug abuse prevention and intervention programs ^{into} one grant program administered by the state superintendent and allows a school board to apply for a grant to fund any kind of alcohol and other drug abuse prevention and intervention program. In addition, the bill does not limit the amount of each grant that the state superintendent may award.

EDUCATION

PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION

Under current law, the state superintendent of public instruction (state superintendent) administers the following alcohol and other drug abuse prevention and intervention grant programs for school districts: the drug abuse resistance education program, the grants for families and schools together program, the pupil alcohol and other drug abuse program projects and the after-school and summer school program. Current law limits the amount the state superintendent may award under each grant program.

This bill consolidates the alcohol and other drug abuse prevention and intervention programs into one grant program administered by the state superintendent and allows a school board to apply for a grant to fund any kind of alcohol and other drug abuse prevention and intervention program. In addition, the bill does not limit the amount of each grant that the state superintendent may award.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:
