Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

PUBLIC ASSISTANCE

Under current law, the department of workforce development (DWD) is directed to allocate certain moneys for various public assistance programs. This bill eliminates the requirement that moneys be allocated for some of the programs and adds new programs to the list of those for which moneys must be allocated, including all of the following:

1. A program to fund efforts to provide an emotionally and intellectually stimulating environment for certain low-income children under the age of five.
2. A literacy program targeted at certain low-income individuals.
3. A competitive grant program to fund programs that improve social, academic and employment skills of certain low-income youth.
4. A program to assist low-income workers maintain their jobs and improve their basic skills.
5. A program to match retirees with youth to provide the youth with workforce mentoring.
6. A program to encourage the positive involvement of fathers in their children's lives.
7. A grant program under which DWD is authorized to award up to $1,000,000 to counties and private entities to provide community-based alcohol and other drug abuse treatment that is targeted at certain low-income individuals. DWD must coordinate the program with any similar program that the department of health and family services (DHFS) administers.

This bill also permits DWD to transfer funds received under the federal temporary assistance for needy families (TANF) block grant program to other agencies for programs that target TANF-eligible persons.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

This draft re-reconciles LRB-0702/6 and LRB-1611/5. Both of these drafts should continue to appear in the compiled bill. I have re-reconciled to correct an earlier reconciliation error caused by my overlooking the effective date provision in LRB-1611. I am hopeful that this redraft, along with the redraft of LRB-1611 will clarify matters.

PUBLIC ASSISTANCE

Under current law, the department of workforce development (DWD) is directed to allocate certain moneys for various public assistance programs. This bill eliminates the requirement that moneys be allocated for some of the programs and adds new programs to the list of those for which moneys must be allocated, including all of the following:

1. A program to fund efforts to provide an emotionally and intellectually stimulating environment for certain low-income children under the age of five.
2. A literacy program targeted at certain low-income individuals.
3. A competitive grant program to fund programs that improve social, academic and employment skills of certain low-income youth.
4. A program to assist low-income workers maintain their jobs and improve their basic skills.
5. A program to match retirees with youth to provide the youth with workforce mentoring.
6. A program to encourage the positive involvement of fathers in their children's lives.
7. A grant program under which DWD is authorized to award up to $1,000,000 to counties and private entities to provide community-based alcohol and other drug abuse treatment that is targeted at certain low-income individuals. DWD must coordinate the program with any similar program that the department of health and family services (DHFS) administers.

This bill also permits DWD to transfer funds received under the federal temporary assistance for needy families (TANF) block grant program to other agencies for programs that target TANF-eligible persons.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

PUBLIC ASSISTANCE

Under current law, the department of workforce development (DWD) is directed to allocate certain moneys for various public assistance programs. This bill eliminates the requirement that moneys be allocated for some of the programs and adds new programs to the list of those for which moneys must be allocated, including all of the following:

1. A program to fund efforts to provide an emotionally and intellectually stimulating environment for certain low-income children under the age of five.
2. A literacy program targeted at certain low-income individuals.
3. A competitive grant program to fund programs that improve social, academic and employment skills of certain low-income youth.
4. A program to assist low-income workers maintain their jobs and improve their basic skills.
5. A program to match retirees with youth to provide the youth with workforce mentoring.
6. A program to encourage the positive involvement of fathers in their children's lives.
7. A grant program under which DWD is authorized to award up to $1,000,000 to counties and private entities to provide community-based alcohol and other drug abuse treatment that is targeted at certain low-income individuals. DWD must coordinate the program with any similar program that the department of health and family services (DHFS) administers.

This bill also permits DWD to transfer funds received under the federal temporary assistance for needy families (TANF) block grant program to other agencies for programs that target TANF-eligible persons.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

1 AN ACT ...; relating to: the budget.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

PUBLIC ASSISTANCE

Under current law, the department of workforce development (DWD) is directed to allocate certain moneys for various public assistance programs. This bill eliminates the requirement that moneys be allocated for some of the programs and adds new programs to the list of those for which moneys must be allocated, including all of the following:

1. A program to fund efforts to provide an emotionally and intellectually stimulating environment for certain low-income children under the age of five.
2. A literacy program targeted at certain low-income individuals.
3. A competitive grant program to fund programs that improve social, academic and employment skills of certain low-income youth.
4. A program to assist low-income workers maintain their jobs and improve their basic skills.
5. A program to match retirees with youth to provide the youth with workforce mentoring.
6. A program to encourage the positive involvement of fathers in their children's lives.
7. A grant program under which DWD is authorized to award up to $1,000,000 to counties and private entities to provide community-based alcohol and other drug abuse treatment that is targeted at certain low-income individuals. DWD must coordinate the program with any similar program that the department of health and family services (DHFS) administers.

This bill also permits DWD to transfer funds received under the federal temporary assistance for needy families (TANF) block grant program to other agencies for programs that target TANF-eligible persons.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:
