Subject: 1999-01 Biennial Budget Drafting Requests

99-1517

Two additional items related to HEAB require drafting at this point.

1.) Under current law, students attending tribal colleges are eligible to receive grants under the Tuition Grant (TG) program. Statutory language drafted for inclusion in the biennial budget, LRB-0648/1, would exclude students attending tribal colleges from the TG program.

specify - 1st step: don't subtract no reason for

Please draft language that creates a separate higher education grant program specifically for students attending tribal colleges. The "Tribal College Higher Education Grant" should be patterned on the Wisconsin Higher Education Grant (WHEG) program under s. 39.435, (i.e. similar minimum and maximum grant awards, formula determination, etc.). The program would be funded from a new PR-S continuing appropriation that would receive funds transferred from the Indian gaming receipts appropriation created under s. 20.505 (8) (hm).

*use
 item of 2*

Structure Sim. to WHEG program

The effective date of the provision should be July 1, 2000.

*→ also a separate
 same date for LRB-
 99-0648*

2.) Please draft language that changes the funding source of the Indian Student Assistance (ISA) grant program under s. 39.38. Currently ISA grants are funded from a GPR biennial appropriation under s. 20.235 (1) (fb). The funding source for the program should be changed to a PR-S continuing appropriation that would receive funds transferred from the Indian gaming receipts appropriation created under s. 20.505 (8) (hm).

99-1518

The effective date of the provision should be July 1, 2000.

If you have any questions concerning this request, please contact me at 6-2843, or Peter.Maternowski@doa.state.wi.us.

OTHER EDUCATIONAL AND CULTURAL AGENCIES

Under current law, the higher educational aids board (HEAB) administers a grant program for postsecondary resident students enrolled at least half-time in accredited higher education institutions in this state (Wisconsin higher education grant program). Students at tribal colleges are not eligible for grants under this program. HEAB also administers a tuition grant program for students enrolled at accredited, nonprofit, post-high school educational institutions and tribal colleges (tuition grant program).

Under this bill, students at tribal colleges are eligible for grants under the Wisconsin higher education grant program, but not for grants under the tuition grant program. The bill appropriates money derived from the Indian gaming compacts to pay for the grants awarded to tribal college students under the Wisconsin higher education grant program.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
