Currently, the national guard, within the department of military affairs (DMA), operates the Badger Challenge program, which provides programs for high school aged disadvantaged youth to help them remain in and finish their high school education. The program is funded from federal money, state funds, gifts and fees. This bill will allow federal block grant moneys received by the department of workforce development (DWD) to be used to fund the operation of the Badger Challenge program.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

Bob,

Can the language of the draft be changed to include this reference "eligible to receive temporary assistance for needy families under 42 USC 601 et seq.." We want to clarify the statutes on the Badger Challenge program so that any cadet participating in the program would have to meet this requirement, meaning that their family would have to meet the requirement. Thanks.
