MOTION 630

TEACH BOARD

Waiver of E-Rate Application

Motion:

Move to prohibit the TEACH Board from requiring the KSCADE consortium to apply for E-Rate discounts in order to be eligible for a TEACH preexisting contract grant under the telecommunications access program in 1999-00 only.

196,418 (4r) (g)?

K-12 Schools / college alliance for distance education

Note:

This motion would exempt the KSCADE consortium from the TEACH Board requirement that in order to be eligible for a TEACH preexisting contract grant under the telecommunications access program in 1999-00 an applicant must have applied for the federal E-rate program.

Fox Valley Technical College is currently participating in a number of distance education networks. The local ITV network originates programming in Appleton, Oshkosh and various Regional Centers. Programming is also sent to other technical colleges in Wisconsin. Additionally, FVTC receives programming from other technical colleges and University of Wisconsin System schools. The KSCADE ITV Network allows for programming to take place between area high schools Fox Valley Technical College and University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh.

Interactive Television makes it possible for students to participate in courses they might not have been able to take because of travel restrictions, work schedules, or low enrollments.

The sites available on the FVTC ITV network are:

- Appleton (3 classrooms 2 way audio & Video, Compressed T1 & ITFS)
- Oshkosh (20 miles away, 2 way audio & video, ITFS)
- Waupaca (30 miles away, 2 way audio & video, Compressed T1)
- Clintonville (40 miles away, 2 way audio & video, Compressed T1)
- Neenah Regional Fire Training Center (10 Miles away, 2 way audio & video, Compressed T1)
- Neenah Regional Center (10 miles away, 2 way audio, 1 way video, ITFS)
- Chilton Regional Center (40 miles away, 2 way audio, 1 way video, ITFS)

KSCADE (K-12 Schools/College Alliance for Distance Education) is a voice/video/data interconnect which provides multiple video channels and a data overlay with Internet access to participating schools. KSCADE is a consortium of more than 30 sites located in East Central Wisconsin. The mission of KSCADE is: "To enhance learner access to available instructional resources among schools and the technical college (Fox Valley Technical College) in East Central Wisconsin through the development of interconnected telecommunication technology linkages".

	WTCN - The Wisconsin Technical College Network began programming in late August 1998. This new network will link together all 16 Wisconsin Technical Colleges
