JUSTICE

Report on Environment Enforcement Training

*Friendly Amendment:
(e) recommendation regarding distance education.*

Motion:

Move to direct the Departments of Justice (DOJ) and Natural Resources (DNR), in consultation with law enforcement instructors and training academies, to review educational materials and training objectives from the Midwest Environmental Enforcement Association (MEEA). Direct DOJ and DNR to report back to the Joint Committee on Finance at the regularly scheduled summer, 2000, 13.10 meeting, and make recommendations regarding the possible purchase and distribution of MEEA materials to Wisconsin training academies for use in patrol officer recertification training. Specify that the report include: (a) a recommendation on the possible use of DOJ's existing Roll Call Law format to produce a training video for distribution to all law enforcement agencies and training academies; (b) recommendations on the possibility of developing a training seminar that could be presented at various regional training events; (c) a recommendation on whether a training CD-ROM should be produced; and (d) recommendations for funding any training proposal with a combination of DOJ Law Enforcement Training Funds, DNR Fish and Wildlife accounts funds, and DNR environmental account funds.
