Summary WI STAT 157.065 restricts where cemeteries may be built. This amendment provides an exemption to this statute for St. Johns's Northwestern Military Academy in Delafield so the facility may construct a columbarium, which is similar to a mausoleum. The amendment also requires that the facility obtain approval of their municipality prior to construction, and that the columbarium be no larger than 3500 square feet.

Fiscal Impact There is no state fiscal impact
