8 “SECTION 2928m. 560.025 of the statutes is created to read:

9 560.025 Maintenance of benefits as condition of assistance. (1)

10 DEFINITIONS. In this section:

11 (a) “Business” means any person engaged in any activity or enterprise for profit 12 employing one or more person in this state.

1 (b) “Business assistance” means any grant or loan provided by the department 2 under this chapter.

3 (2) RULES OF CONDUCT. (a) Any business that is applying for business assistance 4 shall certify on its application for the business assistance that the business has not,
5 at any time within the 5–year period preceding the date of the application, ceased 6 or reduced any health care benefits or pension benefits provided directly or indirectly 7 by the business to the employes of the business employed in this state.

8 (b) Any business that receives business assistance shall agree, as a condition 9 of receiving the business assistance, not to cease or reduce any health care benefits 10 or pension benefits provided directly or indirectly by the business to the employes of 11 the business employed in this state for 5 years after the date on which the business 12 receives the business assistance.

13 (3) ENFORCEMENT AND ADMINISTRATION. (a) Before providing any business 14 assistance, the department shall determine whether the business applying for the 15 business assistance has, at any time within the 5–year period preceding the date of 16 the application, ceased or reduced any health care benefits or pension benefits 17 provided directly or indirectly by the business to the employes of the business
18 employed in this state. If the business has, at any time within the 5–year period 19 preceding the date of the application, ceased or reduced any health care benefits or 20 pension benefits provided directly or indirectly by the business to the employes of the 21 business employed in this state, the department may not provide any business to 22 that business. If the department provides business assistance to a business and later 23 determines that the business has, at any time within the 5–year period preceding the 24 date of the application or within the period between the date of the application and 25 the date of receipt of the business assistance, ceased or reduced any health care

1 benefits or pension benefits provided directly or indirectly by the business to the 2 employes of the business employed in this state, the department shall assess and 3 collect any penalties imposed under sub. (4) according to the procedure specified in 4 par. (c).

5 (b) The department shall monitor a businesses receiving business assistance 6 to ensure that the business does not cease or reduce any health care benefits or 7 pension benefits provided directly or indirectly by the business to the employes of the 8 business employed in this state for 5 years after the date on which the business 9 receives the business assistance. If the department determines that the business has 10 ceased or reduced any health care benefits or pension benefits provided directly or 11 indirectly by the business to the employes of the business employed in this state at 12 any time within the 5–year period beginning on the date on which the business 13 receives the business assistance, the department shall assess and collect any 14 penalties imposed under sub. (4) according to the procedure specified in par. (c).

15 (c) The department shall assess and collect any penalties imposed under sub.
16 (4) according to the following procedure:

17 1. The department shall notify the business that is the subject of the penalty 18 that the business is in noncompliance with this section and of the penalty assessed 19 under sub. (4).

20 2. The business may, within 30 days after the date of the notice, appeal in 21 writing to the secretary, and the secretary shall enter his or her final decision within 22 30 days after receiving the appeal.

23 3. The business may, within 30 days after the secretary’s decision, request a 24 contested case hearing under s. 227.42 from the department.
