Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate This bill permits an employer to refuse to employ anyone or to terminate an employee convicted of a felony. This bill will not have an impact on the Department as an employer. However, this bill may increase the number of offenders supervised by the Department in local communities who will be unable to find, or keep, employment. The Department spent more than $2.5 million during FY 99 to provide offenders with assistance in obtaining housing. It is assumed any increase in unemployment will result in an increase in the number of those who need assistance.
Long-Range Fiscal Implications See above.
