Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill requires all public and charter school pupils, when addressing the employees of the school that they are attending, to use the term “ma’am,” “sir,” “mr.,” “mrs.,” “miss,” or “ms.,” as appropriate. The requirement first applies in the 2002–03 school year to pupils in grades kindergarten to five. One grade is added in each succeeding school year. The bill directs each school board (and the governing body of each charter school that is not an instrumentality of a school district) to establish disciplinary procedures and measures for pupils who violate the requirement. Discipline may include community service but may not include suspension or expulsion.
