Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate:

Federal law permits individual American Indians or an Indian tribe to request the U. S. Secretary of the Interior to place land in trust for that individual or tribe. The Secretary of the Interior is required to notify the state and those local governments with regulatory jurisdiction over the land of the request to place the land in trust.

Under current state law, the local government which is so notified need take no action. Under the bill, the local government would be required to hold a public meeting on the request to place land in trust. Notice of the time and place of the hearing would have to be made by publishing a class 1 (single publication) notice.

Based on the location of land that is currently in trust for Indian tribes or individuals, most requests to place additional land in trust are likely to occur in towns. This bill will increase town expenditures by the cost of publishing the public hearing notice and holding the public hearing. For most towns, the cost of a class 1 notice plus per diems paid to a 3 to 5 member town board should total no more than $250 a hearing.
