1 AN ACT to amend 70.11 (10) and 70.11 (12) (a) of the statutes; relating to: the
 2 property tax exemption for property owned by the Young Men's Christian
 3 Association.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, a building and the land on which the building is located, not exceeding 40 acres, that is owned by the Young Men's Christian Association (YMCA) is exempt from property taxes, if the property is outside the limit of any incorporated city or village and is used for summer camps or assemblies. Under current law, property, not exceeding ten acres that is necessary for the location or convenience of buildings, that is owned by certain benevolent associations, including the YMCA, is exempt from property taxes, if the property is not used for profit. Under current law, all property that is owned by certain charitable organizations, such as the Salvation Army and the Boy Scouts of America, is exempt from property taxes, if no individual owner or member of the organization receives profit from the organization.

Under this bill, all property that is owned by the YMCA, not exceeding 40 acres for property that is located outside the limit of any city or village and not exceeding ten acres for property that is located inside the limit of any city or village, is exempt from property taxes, if no individual owner or member of the YMCA receives profit from the YMCA.

This bill will be referred to the joint survey committee on tax exemptions for a detailed analysis, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
