

DRAFTER'S NOTE FROM THE
LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE BUREAU

LRBs0128/1dn
RPN:kmg:rs

May 24, 2001

I did include the possibility of a legal custodian bringing an action for wrongful birth, by enlarging the definition to include them to make sure that the immunity would cover such actions. However, I am not sure that someone, such as a county that is given legal custody of a child, has the right to bring an action for wrongful birth.
