Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Current law prohibits certain persons from possessing a firearm. A felon is prohibited from possessing a firearm subsequent to conviction and certain persons adjudicated delinquent may not possess a firearm subsequent to adjudication. A person found not guilty of a felony by reason of mental defect is prohibited from possessing a firearm subsequent to the not guilty finding. Current law also prohibits certain persons ordered not to possess a firearm, such as those committed for treatment for a mental illness, from possessing a firearm while subject to that order. A person who is enjoined from committing acts of domestic abuse or who is enjoined from coming into contact with a child is prohibited from possessing a firearm while the injunction is in effect. Finally, a person who is subject to an order that prohibits the person from engaging in harassing behavior and from possessing a firearm, is prohibited from possessing a firearm while the order is in effect.

With certain exceptions, this bill prohibits a person who, under current law, is prohibited from possessing a firearm from obtaining certain hunting licenses that authorize the person to hunt with a firearm, such as a small game hunting license or a deer hunting license (hunting license). Under an exception to this general prohibition, the bill allows such a person to obtain a turkey hunting license or a bear hunting license, both of which also authorize hunting with a bow and arrow, if the person uses the license to hunt turkey or bear only with a bow and arrow and not with a firearm.
