Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

This bill would affect the way in which the department responds to open records requests. These changes are not expected to have any quantifiable fiscal impact.

The bill also requires privacy impact statements for bills that have an impact on personal privacy. The privacy impact statements are to be prepared by one or more state agencies or authorities, as determined by the Department of Administration. This provision is not estimated to have any quantifiable fiscal impact at this time.

Long-Range Fiscal Implications
