Don:

1. Should the procedure under s. 703.093 be included in the draft wherever the procedure under s. 703.09 (2) is mentioned? (For example, at the end of s. 703.11 (5).)
2. In s. 703.16 (2) (b), should "projected" refer to "common expenses" instead of to "percentage share"? If it should, is it redundant because of the word "anticipated" in the clause that follows?

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill is explained in the NOTES provided by the joint legislative council in the bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

PREFATORY NOTE: This bill was developed by the joint legislative council's special committee on condominium law review. The provisions of the bill are described throughout the bill in NOTES to individual provisions.

3 SECTION 1. 703.02 (1d) of the statutes is repealed.

NOTE: Repeals the definition of "allocated interests" from the general definitions section of ch. 703. The term is used only in s. 703.275, relating to merger or consolidation of condominiums. Consequently, the term is defined by this bill in s. 703.275 for purposes of s. 703.275. See SEC. of the bill.

4 SECTION 2. 703.02 (7) of the statutes is amended to read:

5 703.02 (7) "Declarant" means any owner who subjects his or her property to a 6 condominium declaration established under this chapter. The term includes an 7 assignee of the declarant under s. 703.09 (4).

NOTE: The term "declarant" will include an assignee of the declarant if the conditions of new sub. (4) of current s. 703.09 are met. See SEC. of the bill.

8 SECTION 3. 703.02 (14m) of the statutes is amended to read:

9 703.02 (14m) "Small residential condominium" means a condominium with no
10 more than ~~4~~ 12 units, ~~all of which are restricted to residential uses.~~

NOTE: Revises the definition of "small residential condominium" by increasing the maximum number of units from 4 to 12 and eliminating the requirement that all the units be restricted to residential uses. As a result, the defined term is changed to "small condominium". See also SECS. to of the bill, which make related changes to current s. 703.365, relating to small residential condominiums.

The expanded availability of the streamlined regulations for the creation and operation of "small" condominiums under s. 703.365 reflects the utility and acceptance of the regulations, enacted in 1986.

11 SECTION 4. 703.06 of the statutes is amended to read:

1           703.06 Alterations prohibited. Except as otherwise provided in this
2 chapter, no unit owner may ~~de~~ make any alteration ~~which that~~ would jeopardize the 3 soundness or safety of the property, reduce the value thereof, ~~or~~ impair any easement
4 or hereditament, or change the exterior appearance of a unit or any other portion of 5 the condominium not part of the unit.

NOTE: For convenience, adds reference in this section to the general prohibition in
s. 703.13 (5) (a) against changing the exterior appearance of a unit or of any other portion of the condominium without permission of the association board of directors.

6           SECTION 5. 703.08 (1) of the statutes is renumbered 703.08 (1) (intro.) and 7 amended to read:

8           703.08 (1) (intro.) Residential real property may not be converted to a 9 condominium unless the owner of the residential real property gives ~~120 days'~~ prior 10 written notice of the conversion to each of the tenants of the building or buildings
11 scheduled for conversion. ~~A tenant has the exclusive option to purchase the unit for~~ 12 a During the 60-day period of 60 days immediately following the date of delivery of 13 the notice a tenant has the first right to purchase the unit, if the unit is offered for 14 sale at any time during that period, for any of the following:

NOTE: See the NOTE to SEC. 7, below.

15           SECTION 6. 703.08 (1) (a), (b) and (c) of the statutes are created to read:

16           703.08 (1) (a) The price at which the unit is being offered on the market.

17           (b) The price contained in any accepted offer to purchase the unit.

18           (c) The price otherwise agreed to by the tenant and the seller.

NOTE: See the NOTE to SEC. 7, below.

19           SECTION 7. 703.08 (2) (intro.) of the statutes is amended to read:

20           703.08 (2) (intro.) A tenant may not be required to vacate the property during 21 the 120-day period immediately following the date of delivery of the notice required 22 under sub. (1) except for:

NOTE: Under current law, residential property may not be converted to a condominium unless the property owner gives 120 days' prior written notice of the

SECTIONS 5 to 8 of conversion to each of the tenants of the building scheduled for conversion. A tenant has the "exclusive option to purchase" the unit for a period of 60 days following the date of delivery of the notice. This bill revises current law by:

1. Providing that the property may be converted to a condominium immediately upon completion of the notice requirement, rather than 120 days after notice. However, the tenant's rights relating to occupying and purchasing the property are preserved.

2. Clarifying that during the 60-day period immediately following the date of delivery of the conversion notice, a tenant has the "first right to purchase" (not the "exclusive option to purchase") the unit if the unit is offered for sale at any time during the 60-day period:

a. For the price at which the unit is being offered on the market.

b. For the price contained in any accepted offer to purchase the unit (from any prospective purchaser, not just the tenant).

c. For the price otherwise agreed to by the tenant and the seller.

3. Expressly authorizing the tenant to waive in writing his or her occupancy right and first right to purchase. See Sec. below.

SECTION 8. 703.08 (3) of the statutes is created to read:

703.08 (3) A tenant may waive in writing his or her first right of purchase under sub. (1), his or her right to remain on the property under sub. (2), or both.

NOTE: See the NOTE to SEC. 7, above.

SECTION 9. 703.09 (1) (g) of the statutes is amended to read:

703.09 (1) (g) Statement of the purposes for which the building and each of the units are intended and restricted as to use, including any requirement applicable to or restriction on the rental of residential units or reference to any such requirement or restriction in the bylaws.

NOTE: Requires the condominium declaration to include any requirement applicable to or restriction on the rental of residential condominium units or reference to any such requirement or restriction in the bylaws.

SECTION 10. 703.09 (1) (h) of the statutes is amended to read:

703.09 (1) (h) ~~The name of the person to receive service of process in the cases provided in this chapter, together with the and address of that person and the method by which the association may designate a successor to the person~~ the resident agent under s. 703.23.

NOTE: Substitutes reference to the "resident agent under s. 703.23" for the current requirement that the declaration include the name of the person "to receive service of process in the cases provided in this chapter". Since s. 703.23, stats., also provides for changing the resident agent, the bill also removes the requirement that the declaration indicate the method by which the association may designate a successor to the person designated to receive service of process.

1 SECTION 11. 703.09 (1) (k) of the statutes is renumbered 703.09 (1c) and
2 amended to read:

3 703.09 (1c) A condominium declaration shall be signed by the owners of the 4 property and any first mortgagee of the property or the holder of an equivalent 5 security interest in the property in the same manner as required in conveyances of 6 real property.

NOTE: Requires the declaration to be signed by any first mortgagees of the property or the holders of an equivalent security interest, in addition to the owners of the property. This requirement applies only to the declaration submitted for recording under s. 703.07 (1) in order to establish the condominium; it does not apply to amendments to the declaration.

7 SECTION 12. 703.09 (1f) of the statutes is created to read:

8 703.09 (1f) A condominium declaration may provide for mandatory arbitration 9 under ch. 788 of disputes arising out of the declaration, bylaws, or rules involving the 10 interests of the declarant, unit owners, association, or board of directors. A 11 mandatory arbitration provision in a declaration constitutes a written agreement
12 between or among the declarant, association, and board to submit to arbitration a 13 dispute covered by the arbitration provision in the declaration. Acceptance of a 14 conveyance of a condominium unit constitutes an agreement by the unit owner to 15 submit to arbitration a dispute covered by an arbitration provision that is included 16 in the declaration at the time of the conveyance.

NOTE: Expressly allows the declaration to provide for mandatory arbitration under ch. 788, stats., of disputes involving the interests of the declarant, unit owners, the association, or the board of directors when the disputes arise out of the declaration, bylaws, or rules.

17 SECTION 13. 703.09 (1m) of the statutes is created to read:

1 703.09 (1m) (a) In this subsection, "violation" means a failure to comply with 2 the declaration, bylaws, or rules of the condominium association or any act or 3 omission that constitutes grounds for eviction under ch. 704.

4 (b) A condominium declaration may provide that a unit owner, as a condition
5 of the rental or lease of the unit owner's residential unit, grants the association power
6 of attorney to bring an eviction action against a tenant of the unit owner who has 7 committed a violation if the unit owner, after being requested by the association to 8 evict the tenant, fails to take reasonable action to evict the tenant. Giving notice
9 terminating, or not renewing, a tenant's lease or rental agreement within 60 days 10 after an eviction request constitutes reasonable action to evict the tenant for 11 purposes of this subsection. The declaration may specify notice and procedural 12 requirements for the exercise of power of attorney by the association and the 13 allocation of responsibility for eviction-related costs between the unit owner and the 14 association. An eviction action brought by an association is subject to chs. 704 and 15 799.

16 (c) This subsection applies only to leases or rental agreements that are entered 17 into or renewed after 3 years after the effective date of this paragraph .... [revisor 18 insert date].

do so

NOTE: Expressly authorizes the condominium declaration to allow the condominium association, under specified circumstances, to bring an eviction action against a tenant who fails to comply with the declaration, bylaws, or association rules or when there are any grounds for eviction under current law (a "violation"). Specifically, a declaration may provide that a unit owner, as a condition of renting or leasing his or her residential unit, grants the association power of attorney to bring an eviction action against a tenant of the unit owner who commits a violation if the unit owner fails to take reasonable action to evict the tenant after being requested to evict the tenant by the association. If within 60 days after the eviction request the unit owner terminates or does not renew the tenant's lease or rental agreement, that constitutes reasonable action to evict a tenant. The declaration may specify notice and procedural requirements for the exercise of power of attorney by the association and the allocation of responsibility for eviction-related costs between the unit owner and the association. An eviction action brought by an association is subject to chs. 704 and 799, stats.

1 SECTION 14. 703.09 (2) of the statutes is amended to read:

2 703.09 (2) Except as provided in ~~s. sub. (4) and ss. 703.093, 703.13 (6) (c) and~~
3 (d) and (8) (b), and 703.26, a condominium declaration may be amended with the 4 written consent of at least two-thirds of the unit owners aggregate of the votes
5 established under sub. (1) (f) or a greater percentage if provided in the declaration.

6 An amendment becomes effective when it is recorded in the same manner as the 7 declaration. The document submitting the amendment for recording shall state that 8 the required consents and approvals for the amendment were received. A unit 9 owner's written consent is not effective unless it is approved in writing by the first 10 mortgagee of the unit, if any. Approval from the first mortgage lender or the person
11 servicing the first mortgage loan on a unit constitutes approval of the first mortgagee
12 under this subsection. or its equivalent for the holder of an equivalent security interest

NOTE: 1. Amends the exception clause to add reference to s. 703.09 (4), created by SEC. of the bill; to s. 703.093, created by SEC. of the bill; and to s. 703.13 (6) (c) and (d) and (8) (b), treated by SECS. and of the bill. The added references contain different declaration amendment procedures than the general procedure contained in s. 703.09 (2).

2. Clarifies that reference to "two-thirds of the unit owners" is to two-thirds of the total votes (established under current s. 703.09 (1) (f)). The current reference is ambiguous. first

3. Provides that the required mortgagee approval applies to first mortgagees only and must be in writing and that approval by the person serving the mortgage loan constitutes approval by the mortgagee. first

4. Requires the document submitting the declaration amendment for recording to state that the required consents and approvals for the amendment were received.

13 SECTION 15. 703.09 (4) of the statutes is created to read:

14 703.09 (4) A declarant may assign his or her rights and obligations as a 15 declarant under this chapter by recording an amendment to the declaration that 16 includes the assignment and an acceptance of the assignment that is signed by the 17 assignee and acknowledged. A declarant may not assign under this subsection less 18 than all of his or her rights and obligations as a declarant under this chapter.

NOTE: Gives express authorization for a declarant to assign all of his or her rights and obligations as a declarant under ch. 703 if the declarant records an amendment to the declaration that includes the assignment and an acceptance of the assignment that is signed by the assignee and acknowledged. Inclusion of this express authority is not intended to imply that a declarant currently may not assign rights and obligations.

1           SECTION 16. 703.093 of the statutes is created to read:

2           703.093 Alternative procedure for amending declaration. (1) As an
3 alternative to s. 703.09 (2), a condominium declaration may be amended under this
4 section if at least two-thirds of the aggregate of the votes established under s. 703.09
5 (1) (f), or a greater percentage if provided in the declaration, consent to the 6 amendment in writing and those consents are approved by the mortgagees or holders
7 of equivalent security interests in the units. An amendment becomes effective when 8 it is recorded in the same manner as the declaration.

9           (2) The association has 180 days to secure the required consents and approvals
10 under this section, commencing with the recording of an affidavit with the register
11 of deeds of the county in which the condominium is located. The affidavit shall do 12 all of the following:

13           (a) Set forth the text of the proposed amendment.

14           (b) Provide the name and address of the senior executive officer of the 15 association to whom inquiries should be directed with regard to the proposed 16 amendment.

17           (c) State that a notice was sent to each owner of record and each lender of record
18 for each unit of the association on the date the affidavit is recorded.

19           (d) Be signed by the senior executive officer of the association.

20           (3) Notice of a proposed amendment to a declaration under this section shall 21 be mailed on the date the affidavit is recorded under sub. (2) to the owner of each
22 condominium unit and to any mortgagee of, or holder of an equivalent security

1 interest in, each unit, as identified in a title report prepared on the date the notice
2 is sent.

3 (4) The notice mailed under sub. (3) shall do all of the following:

4 (a) Contain a copy of the text of the proposed amendment and a current copy
5 of this section.

6 (b) Include a written ballot to be signed by the unit owner, identifying the unit
7 casting the ballot and identifying each owner of record of that unit as of the date the 8 affidavit is recorded under sub. (2). The ballot shall include a place for any mortgagee
9 or equivalent security interest holder to whom notice is sent under sub. (3) to indicate 10 its approval or objection under sub. (5) (b).

11 (c) State that, if more than one person is an owner of the unit and the owners 12 cannot agree how to cast the ballot, the unit's vote shall be treated as a vote in 13 opposition to the proposed amendment.

14 (d) State that a ballot signed by only one owner shall count as the ballot of that 15 unit, unless more than one ballot is received by the association from that unit, in 16 which case all ballots received from that unit must concur in the vote cast or the 17 ballots, collectively, shall be treated as a vote in opposition to the proposed 18 amendment by that unit.

19 (e) State that the proposed amendment must be voted on as written and that 20 no changes to the proposed amendment may be accomplished by this vote.

21 (f) Include the address to which the completed ballot should be returned.

22 (5) (a) The owner of each unit shall vote on the proposed amendment by signing
23 the ballot before a notary public and by mailing the signed and notarized ballot, or 24 by personally delivering it to the association of unit owners at the address specified 25 under sub. (4) (b).

*to the address specified
under sub. (4) (f)*

1 (b) Each mortgagee or equivalent security interest holder receiving the notice
2 under sub. (3) shall signify its approval or objection to the amendment by having an 3 authorized person sign the ballot before a notary public and by returning the signed,
4 notarized ballot to the association.

5 (6) The association may rely on the list of owners of record set forth in a title
6 report obtained as of the date the affidavit is recorded under sub. (2), unless the 7 association receives a written notice, signed and notarized by both the previous 8 owner and the new owner, advising the association that ownership of the unit has 9 changed. The association shall send a copy of the notice under sub. (3) to the new 10 owner of a unit and any mortgagee or equivalent security interest holder promptly
11 after receiving notice of the transfer of ownership. It is the responsibility of the new 12 unit owner to comply with this section. If the previous owner had voted prior to the 13 change in ownership, the new owner may execute the ballot included in the notice 14 under sub. (3), which ballot, when returned by the new owner, shall supersede and 15 replace any ballot cast by the previous owner if the required approval of any 16 mortgagee or equivalent security interest holder is also timely received. The 17 180-day period applicable to receipt of the ballot for the unit shall be extended to a 18 date 14 days after the ballot is mailed by the association if the ballot is mailed within 19 14 days before the end of the 180-day period.

20 (7) Any person acquiring a mortgage or equivalent security interest on a unit 21 after the affidavit is recorded under sub. (2) may notify the association in writing of 22 the mortgage or equivalent security interest lien, identifying the unit on which it 23 holds a lien, and signify its approval of or objection to the proposed amendment to 24 the declaration.

1 (8) If the association receives the required number of consents and approvals
2 from unit owners and mortgagees and equivalent security interest holders within 3 the required time after the affidavit is recorded under sub. (2), the senior executive
4 officer of the association shall record an affidavit in the office of the register of deeds
5 of the county in which the condominium is located, setting forth the facts satisfying
6 the requirements of this section and providing record notice to all interested persons
7 that the declaration has been revised, effective upon the recording of the affidavit,
8 and restating the entire declaration, as amended.

9 (9) The association shall, for a period of 2 years following the recording of the 10 amended declaration under sub. (8), retain on file and make available for inspection 11 at the place where the condominium financial records are maintained all of the 12 following:

- 13 (a) The title report under sub. (6) relied upon by the association.
14 (b) All of the ballots received by the association from unit owners.
15 (c) All written approvals or objections received by the association from 16 mortgagees and equivalent security interest holders.

NOTE: Provides an alternative procedure for amending the declaration. The key feature is that the association has 180 days to secure the required consents and approvals and may rely on the list of owners of record contained in a title report at the beginning of the 180-day period. Provision is made for notice of the proposed amendment to new unit owners and lienholders during the 180-day period and for the new owners and lienholders to cast a ballot replacing the ballot of the previous owner and lienholder. Provision is made to extend the 180-day period 14 days if the ballot is mailed to the new owner and lienholder within 14 days before the end of the 180-day period.

The procedure contains substantial detail concerning the commencement of the 180-day period; required notice; voting by unit owners and lienholders and subsequent unit owners and lienholders; recording the amended declaration; and retention of materials related to the amendment for 2 years.

17 SECTION 17. 703.10 (2g) of the statutes is created to read:

18 703.10 (2g) OCCUPANCY REQUIREMENTS FOR BOARD MEMBERS. The bylaws may 19 provide that a unit owner may not serve as a director unless the owner occupies his

1 or her unit or may specify the proportion of nonoccupant unit owners who may serve
2 as directors.

X who ← NOTE: Expressly provides that the condominium bylaws may provide that a unit owner may not serve as a director of the condominium association unless the unit owner occupies his or her unit or may specify the proportion of nonoccupant unit owners ~~that~~ may serve as a director. Note that under current s. 703.10 (2) (d), stats., not more than one "nonunit owner" may be on the board.

3 SECTION 18. 703.11 (2) (c) of the statutes is amended to read:

4 703.11 (2) (c) ~~Diagrammatic floor plans~~ Plans showing the location of each
5 building located or to be located on the property which show and, if there are units
6 in a building, that show the perimeters, approximate dimensions, floor area approximate
7 square footage, and location of each unit in it the building. Common elements shall 8 be shown graphically to the extent feasible.

Also makes editorial changes.

NOTE: Simplifies the required content of a condominium plat by substituting "plans showing the location of each building" for "diagrammatic floor plans of each building", adding "perimeters", and substituting "approximate square footage" for "floor area". Reference in the revised provision to "plans" is not intended to include the construction plans for the building, including all the separate plans that comprise the construction plans.

9 SECTION 19. 703.11 (5) of the statutes is created to read:

10 703.11 (5) AMENDMENT. Except as provided in s. 703.265, amendment of a 11 a condominium ~~plot~~ by an addendum that is not included as part of an amendment to 12 the declaration shall be accomplished in the same manner as an amendment to the 13 declaration under s. 703.09 (2).

NOTE: Clarifies that an amendment of a condominium plat (addendum) that is not included as part of an amendment to the declaration is to be accomplished in the same manner as an amendment to the declaration.

14 SECTION 20. 703.13 (5) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:

15 703.13 (5) (a) A unit owner may make any improvements or alterations within 16 his or her unit that do not impair the structural integrity or lessen the support of any 17 portion of the condominium and that do not create a nuisance substantially affecting

1 the use and enjoyment of other units or the common elements. A unit owner may not
2 change the exterior appearance of a unit or of any other portion of the condominium
3 without permission of the board of directors of the association.

NOTE: For convenience, expressly limits the unit improvements or alterations that a unit owner may make to exclude those that create a nuisance in the use and enjoyment of other units or the common elements. Reference to "nuisance" is intended to include both nuisance under common law and nuisance under other law, e.g., ch. 823, stats.

4 SECTION 21. 703.13 (5m) of the statutes is created to read:

5 703.13 (5m) IMPROVEMENTS TO LIMITED COMMON ELEMENTS. (a) If permitted by 6 the condominium instruments and subject to par. (b) and to any restrictions or 7 limitations specified in the condominium instruments, a unit owner may improve,
8 including the enclosure of, the limited common elements appurtenant exclusively to 9 that owner's unit if all of the following conditions are met:

10 1. A statement describing the improvement, including a description of the 11 project, the materials to be used, and the project's proposed impact on the appearance
12 of the condominium, and identifying the project contractor is submitted to the board
13 of directors of the association.

14 2. The improvement will not interfere with the use and enjoyment of the units 15 of other unit owners or the common elements or limited common elements of the 16 condominium.

17 3. The improvement will not impair the structural integrity of the 18 condominium.

19 4. Any change to the exterior appearance of the condominium is approved by 20 the board of directors of the association.

21 (b) All costs and expenses of an improvement under this subsection and any 22 increased costs of maintenance and repair of the limited common elements resulting 23 from the improvement are the obligation of the unit owner. The unit owner shall

1 protect the association and other unit owners from liens on property of the 2 association or of other unit owners that otherwise might result from the 3 improvement.

NOTE: Allows a unit owner, at the owner's expense, to improve limited common elements appurtenant exclusively to that owner's unit if permitted by the condominium instruments and if the specified conditions are met.

4 SECTION 22. 703.13 (6) (c) and (d) of the statutes are amended to read:

5 703.13 (6) (c) An amendment to a declaration shall identify the units involved
6 and shall state that the boundaries between those units are being relocated by 7 agreement of the unit owners thereof. The amendment shall contain words of 8 conveyance between those unit owners, and when recorded shall also be indexed in 9 the name of the grantor and grantee. If the adjoining unit owners have specified in 10 their written application the reallocation between their units of the aggregate 11 undivided interest in the common elements appertaining to those units, the 12 amendment to the declaration shall reflect that reallocation. An amendment to a 13 declaration under this paragraph shall be adopted, at the option of the adjoining unit 14 owners, either under s. 703.09 (2) or by the written consent of the owners of the 15 adjoining units involved and the mortgagees of the adjoining units.

NOTE: Current s. 703.13 (6), stats., contains a procedure for changing boundaries between adjoining condominium units when the condominium instruments permit a relocation and the adjoining unit owners desire the relocation. One element of that procedure is an amendment to the declaration, describing the boundary change and any reallocation of interests in the adjoining unit owners' respective interests in the common elements. [s. 703.13 (6) (c), stats.]

Section 703.13 (6) (c) is amended to allow a declaration amendment under the boundary change procedure to be accomplished simply with the approval of the adjoining unit owners and the mortgagees of the adjoining units, if any. (The general method of amending the declaration under s. 703.09 (2) may, at the option of the adjoining unit owners, continue to be used instead of the simplified procedure.)

16 (d) If the adjoining unit owners have specified in their written application a 17 reasonable reallocation, as determined by the board of directors, of the number of

1 votes in the association or liabilities for future common expenses not specially
2 assessed, appertaining to their units, an amendment to the condominium
3 instruments shall reflect those reallocations. An amendment to a declaration under 4 this paragraph shall be adopted in the manner specified in par. (c).

NOTE: The procedure for relocating boundaries between adjoining condominium units also provides that if the adjoining unit owners have specified in the written application a reasonable allocation, as determined by the board of directors, of the number of votes in the association or liabilities for future common expenses not specially assessed that pertain to the units, an amendment to the condominium instruments is to reflect those reallocations. This bill provides that an amendment to a declaration under this provision is adopted in the same manner as described in paragraph 2 of the NOTE immediately above.

5 SECTION 23. 703.13 (8) of the statutes is created to read:

6 703.13 (8) MERGER OF UNITS. (a) If any condominium instruments expressly
7 permit the merger of 2 or more adjoining units into one unit, a merger shall be made 8 in accordance with this subsection and any restrictions and limitations specified in 9 the condominium instruments.

10 (b) If the unit owners of adjoining units that may be merged desire to merge 11 the units, the unit owners, after 30 days' written notice to all other unit owners, shall 12 prepare and execute appropriate instruments under this subsection. An amendment 13 to the condominium instruments shall assign a new identifying number to the new 14 unit created by the merger of the units and shall allocate to the new unit all of the 15 undivided interest in the common elements and rights to use the limited common 16 elements and the votes in the association formerly appertaining to the separate 17 units. The amendment shall reflect an allocation to the new unit of the liability for 18 common expenses and rights to common surpluses formerly appertaining to the 19 separate units. An amendment to a declaration under this paragraph shall be 20 adopted either under s. 703.09 (2) or by the written consent of the owners of the units

1 to be merged, the mortgagees of those units, if any, and the board of directors of the 2 association.

3 (c) Plats and plans showing the boundaries and dimensions of the new unit
4 together with the new identifying number or letter shall be prepared. The plats and 5 plans shall be certified as to their accuracy and compliance with this subsection by 6 a civil engineer, architect, or licensed land surveyor authorized to practice in this 7 state.

8 (d) After appropriate instruments have been prepared and executed, they shall 9 be delivered promptly to the owner or owners of the merged unit upon payment by 10 the owner or owners of all reasonable costs for their preparation. Those instruments
11 are effective when executed by the owner or owners of the merged unit and recorded 12 in the office of the register of deeds of the county where the property is located. The 13 recording of the instruments is conclusive evidence that the merger did not violate 14 any restriction or limitation specified by the condominium instruments and that any 15 reallocations made under this subsection were reasonable.

NOTE: Provides a procedure for merging adjoining condominium units based on current procedures for: relocating boundaries between adjoining condominium units [s.
703.13 (6), stats.]; and separation of a unit into one or more units [s. 703.13 (7), stats.].
The procedure includes a simplified means of amending the declaration.

16 SECTION 24. 703.15 (1) of the statutes is amended to read:

17 703.15 (1) LEGAL ENTITY. The affairs of every condominium shall be governed 18 by an association ~~which~~ that, even if unincorporated, is constituted a legal entity for 19 all purposes. Except for matters reserved to the association members or unit owners
20 by this chapter, the declaration, or the bylaws, all policy and operational decisions
21 of the association, including interpretation of the condominium instruments, 22 bylaws, rules, and other documents relating to the condominium or the association.

1 shall be made by its board of directors. This subsection does not affect the deference
2 accorded to, or the standard of review of, an action of the board of directors by a court.

NOTE: Clarifies the prevailing, but not always known, view of the role of the association board of directors: with the exception of matters reserved to association members or unit owners by ch. 703, the declaration, or bylaws, all policy and operational decisions of the association are made by the board. Policy and operational decisions include, but are not limited to, interpretation of condominium instruments, bylaws, rules, and other documents relating to the condominium or the association.

3 SECTION 25. 703.15 (3) (b) 1. of the statutes is amended to read:

4 703.15 (3) (b) 1. Make contracts and incur liabilities, including borrowing funds
5 in the name of the association, in the manner specified in the bylaws under s. 703.10 6 (2) (f).

NOTE: For illustrative purposes, expressly provides that a condominium association, subject to any restrictions and limitations specified by the declaration, may borrow funds in the name of the association in the manner specified in the bylaws as part of its general authority to make contracts and incur liabilities. The exercise of this authority by an association is subject to current s. 703.25, relating to the tort and contract liability of an association. X

7 SECTION 26. 703.15 (3) (b) 8. of the statutes is created to read:

8 703.15 (3) (b) 8. Purchase goods and services jointly with other condominium
9 associations or other persons.

NOTE: Expressly authorizes a condominium association, subject to any restrictions and limitations specified by the declaration, to purchase goods and services jointly with other condominium associations or other persons.

10 SECTION 27. 703.15 (4) (d) 1. of the statutes is amended to read:

11 703.15 (4) (d) 1. At meetings of the association every unit owner is entitled to 12 cast the number of votes appurtenant to his or her unit, as established in the 13 declaration under s. 703.09 (1) (f). Unit owners may vote by proxy, but, the proxy is 14 effective only for a maximum period of 180 days following its issuance, unless 15 granted to a mortgagee or lessee. If only one of multiple owners of a unit is present 16 at a meeting of the association, the owner is entitled to cast the votes allocated to that 17 unit.

NOTE: For convenience, indicates by cross-reference that the number of votes appurtenant to a condominium unit is established in the declaration.

1 SECTION 28. 703.155 (7) of the statutes is created to read:

2 703.155 (7) REPRESENTATION OF CONDOMINIUM OR NONCONDOMINIUM PROPERTY. A 3 master association may represent condominium or noncondominium property on 4 behalf of one or more condominiums and property under a different form of 5 ownership or for the benefit of the unit owners of one or more condominiums and the 6 owners of other property.

NOTE: Clarifies the authority of a master association to represent either condominium property or noncondominium property: (a) on behalf of one or more condominiums and property under a different form of ownership; or (b) for the benefit of the unit owners of one or more condominiums and the owners of other property.

7 SECTION 29. 703.16 (2) of the statutes is renumbered 703.16 (2) (a).

8 SECTION 30. 703.16 (2) (b) of the statutes is created to read:

9 703.16 (2) (b) During the period of declarant control of the association under 10 s. 703.15 (2) (c), if any unit owned by the declarant is exempt from assessments for 11 common expenses until the unit is sold, the total amount assessed against units that 12 are not exempt from assessments may not exceed the amount that equals nonexempt
13 units' projected percentage share of common expenses, based on the anticipated
14 common expenses set forth in the annual budget under s. 703.161 (2) (a). The 15 declarant is liable for the balance of the actual common expenses.

NOTE: Provides that, during the period of declarant control, if a unit owned by the declarant is exempt from assessments for common expenses until the unit is sold, the total amount that may be assessed against units that are not exempt from assessments may not exceed the units' projected percentage share of common expenses; the declarant is liable for the balance of the actual expenses.

16 SECTION 31. 703.16 (3) to (9) of the statutes are renumbered 703.165 (2) to (8), 17 and 703.165 (2), (4), (5) (intro.) and (8) (form), as renumbered, are amended to read:

18 703.165 (2) LIABILITY FOR ASSESSMENTS. A unit owner shall be liable for all 19 assessments, or instalments thereof, coming due while owning a unit, including any

1 assessments coming due during the pendency of any claim by the unit owner against
2 the association or during any period in which the unit is not occupied by the unit
3 owner or is leased or rented to any other person. In a voluntary grant, the grantee
4 shall be jointly and severally liable with the grantor for all unpaid assessments
5 against the grantor for his or her share of the common expenses up to the time of the 6 voluntary grant for which a statement of condominium lien is recorded, without 7 prejudice to the rights of the grantee to recover from the grantor the amounts paid
8 by the grantee for such assessments. Liability for assessments may not be avoided 9 by waiver of the use or enjoyment of any common element or by abandonment of the 10 unit for which the assessments are made.

NOTE: Expressly provides that a condominium unit owner is liable for any assessments coming due during the pendency of any claim by the unit owner against the association or during any period the unit is not occupied by the unit owner or is leased or rented to any other person. While the new language is within the scope of current language, it is added for clarification.

11 (4) STATEMENT. Any grantee of a unit is entitled to a statement from the 12 association or the executive board, setting forth the amount of unpaid assessments
13 against the grantor and the. The grantee is not liable for, nor shall the unit conveyed 14 be subject to a lien which that is not filed under sub. (4) (3) for, any unpaid assessment
15 against the grantor in excess of the amount set forth in the statement. If an 16 association or a board of directors does not provide such a statement within 10
17 business days after the grantee's request, they are barred from claiming under any 18 lien which that is not filed under sub. (4) (3) prior to the request for the statement 19 against the grantee.

21 SECTION 32. 703.161 of the statutes is created to read:

22 703.161 Annual budget. (1) APPLICATION. This section applies to any 23 condominium that includes at least one unit that is restricted to residential use.

1           (2) REQUIREMENT. An association annually shall adopt and distribute to all unit
2 owners an annual budget setting forth all of the following:

3           (a) All anticipated common expenses and any amounts to be allocated to a
4 statutory reserve account under s. 703.163 and to any other funds for future
5 expenditures.

6           (b) The amount and purpose of any other anticipated association expenditure.

7           (c) The amount in any statutory reserve account under s. 703.163 or any other
8 funds held for future expenditures.

9           (d) Any common surpluses.

10          (e) The amount and source of any income, other than unit owner assessments.

11          (f) The aggregate amount of any assessment to be levied against unit owners
12 and the purpose of the assessment.

NOTE: Requires the condominium association for condominiums that include at least one unit that is restricted to residential use to annually adopt and distribute to all unit owners an annual budget setting forth:

1. All anticipated common expenses and any amounts to be allocated to a statutory reserve account and to any other funds for future expenditures.

2. The amount and purpose of any other anticipated association expenditure.

3. The amount in any statutory reserve account or any other funds held for future expenditures.

4. Any common surpluses.

5. The amount and source of any income, other than unit owner assessments.

6. The aggregate amount of any assessment to be levied against unit owners and the purpose of the assessment.

If there is a statutory reserve account for the condominium, the annual budget must provide reserve funds for the account. See s. 703.163 (8) (intro.), created by SEC. 33 X of the bill, below.

13           SECTION 33. 703.163 of the statutes is created to read:

14           703.163 Statutory reserve account. (1) DEFINITIONS. In this section:

1 (a) "Reserve funds" means funds derived from assessments against unit owners
2 that are deposited in a statutory reserve account. The term does not include funds
3 for ordinary operations, including amounts held for operational contingencies.

4 (b) "Statutory reserve account" means a separate account established under 5 this section to hold reserve funds.

6 (c) "Statutory reserve account statement" means a statement indicating 7 whether a statutory reserve account has been established for a condominium and,
8 if there is no statutory reserve account, how it is anticipated that future expenditures
9 for the repair and replacement of common elements will be funded.

10 (2) APPLICATION; OTHER RESERVE ACCOUNTS NOT AFFECTED. (a) 1. Except as 11 provided in subds. 2. and 3., this section applies to condominiums consisting 12 exclusively of units that are restricted to residential uses.

13 2. This section does not apply to a small condominium unless the declarant or 14 the association, with the written consent of a majority of the unit votes, elects to be 15 governed by this section.

16 3. This section applies to a condominium consisting of both residential and 17 nonresidential units if the declarant or the association, with the written consent of 18 a majority of the unit votes of the residential units and a majority of the unit votes
19 of the nonresidential units, elects to be governed by this section.

20 (b) This section does not affect a reserve account or a similar account existing 21 on the effective date of this paragraph .... [revisor inserts date], or a reserve account 22 or similar account established on or after the effective date of this paragraph ....
23 [revisor inserts date], that is not a statutory reserve account.

24 (3) NEW CONDOMINIUMS; ESTABLISHMENT OF STATUTORY RESERVE ACCOUNT BY 25 DECLARANT. (a) Except as provided in par. (c), the declarant of a condominium that

16 established under s. 703.27

[Handwritten signature]

7

1 is created on or after the effective date of this paragraph .... [revisor inserts date],
 2 shall establish a statutory reserve account when the condominium is created and
 3 shall execute a statutory reserve account statement. The declarant shall determine 4 the annual amount to be assessed unit owners for reserve funds after considering the 5 factors under sub. (7) (a) to (e) and, if the condominium is a conversion condominium
 6 with more than 4 units, the report prepared under s. 703.33 (2) (cm) 1.

7 (b) Reserve fund assessments for the reserve account established under par. (a) 8 may first be assessed on a particular unit when a certificate of occupancy has been 9 issued that applies to that unit. The declarant may elect to defer payment of the 10 accrued assessments for a particular unit until the first conveyance of that unit. The 11 declarant may not defer payment of accrued reserve fund assessments for more than 12 5 years from the date the exterior construction of the building in which the unit is 13 located is completed. The declarant is liable for all reserve fund assessments on a 14 unit that accrue before the unit is conveyed. If there are accrued reserve fund 15 assessments against a unit, the declarant shall disclose in writing to the first 16 purchaser of the unit whether the declarant has included any accrued reserve fund
 17 assessments in the purchase price of the unit or, if not included, how any accrued
 18 assessment will be paid.

[Handwritten signature]

19 (c) The declarant may elect not to establish a statutory reserve account under 20 par. (a) at the time the condominium is created or, at any time thereafter, may elect 21 to terminate a statutory reserve account during the period of declarant control under 22 s. 703.15 (2) (c). An election under this paragraph shall be made by executing a 23 statutory reserve account statement.

16 established under s. 703.27

24 (4) NEW CONDOMINIUM; DETERMINATION BY ASSOCIATION TO ESTABLISH STATUTORY 25 RESERVE ACCOUNT. If a declarant has elected under sub. (3) (c) not to establish a

1 statutory reserve account or to terminate an account, establishment of a statutory
2 reserve account shall be addressed at the first annual meeting of the association held 3 after, or at a special meeting of the association held within one year after, the 4 expiration of any period of declarant control under s. 703.15 (2) (c). A statutory 5 reserve account is established under this subsection with the written consent of a
6 majority of the unit votes. If a statutory reserve account is established under this 7 subsection, the association shall execute a statutory reserve account statement.

8 (5) EXISTING CONDOMINIUMS; STATUTORY RESERVE ACCOUNT UNLESS ELECT
9 OTHERWISE. The association for a condominium created before the effective date of 10 this subsection .... [revisor inserts date], shall, within 18 months after the effective 11 date of this subsection .... [revisor inserts date], or within 18 months after the 12 expiration of any period of declarant control under s. 703.15 (2) (c), whichever is later,
13 establish a statutory reserve account unless the association, with the written 14 consent of at least two-thirds of the unit votes, elects not to establish a statutory 15 reserve account. Upon the establishment of or the election not to establish a 16 statutory reserve account, the association shall execute a statutory reserve account 17 statement.

18 (6) ELECTION BY ASSOCIATION TO ESTABLISH OR TERMINATE STATUTORY RESERVE
19 ACCOUNT. (a) If an association elects not to establish a statutory reserve account
20 under sub. (4) or (5), or if an association elects to terminate a statutory reserve
21 account under par. (b), the association may at any time thereafter elect to establish 22 a statutory reserve account with the written consent of a majority of the unit votes.

23 (b) An association may, at any time with the written consent of at least 24 two-thirds of the unit votes, terminate a statutory reserve account established under 25 par. (a) or sub. (3) (a), ~~or (4)~~, except that a statutory reserve account established by or (5)

1 a declarant under sub. (3) (a) may not be terminated until after the expiration of any
2 period of declarant control under s. 703.15 (2) (c).

3 (c) Upon the establishment or termination of a statutory reserve account, the 4 association shall execute a statutory reserve account statement.

5 (7) RESERVE FUND. If there is a statutory reserve account for the condominium,
6 the annual budget adopted under s. 703.161 shall provide for reserve funds. Reserve
7 funds may be used as provided in sub. (8). The association shall determine the 8 amount to be assessed unit owners for reserve funds after considering all of the 9 following:

10 (a) The reserve funds currently in the statutory reserve account.

11 (b) The estimated cost of repairing or replacing common elements, other than 12 routine maintenance.

13 (c) The estimated remaining useful life of common elements.

14 (d) The approximate proportion of the estimated cost of repairing or replacing 15 common elements that will be covered by the statutory reserve account and the 16 approximate proportion that will be funded by other means.

17 (e) Any other factor that the association considers relevant.

18 (8) USE OF STATUTORY RESERVE ACCOUNT. (a) Except as provided in par. (b), funds
19 in a statutory reserve account may be used for the repair and replacement of common 20 elements, other than routine maintenance.

21 (b) Funds in a statutory reserve account may be used for normal repair or 22 maintenance, customary services, or other operational costs in excess of amounts 23 budgeted and any contingency funds available for these purposes, with the written 24 consent of at least two-thirds of the unit votes. Funds from the statutory reserve

1 account used under this paragraph must be replaced within 3 years from the date
2 of withdrawal.

3 (9) PERMITTED INVESTMENT OF RESERVE FUNDS. Reserve funds may be invested
4 in any of the investments listed under s. 66.0603 (1m) (a).

5 (10) LIABILITY IMMUNITY. No declarant, unit owner, association, or director,
6 officer, manager, or employee of an association is liable in connection with the 7 establishment or termination of, or decision not to establish or terminate, a statutory 8 reserve account or for any deficiencies in the statutory reserve account ~~resulting~~ 9 from that relate to the determination of amounts to be assessed for reserve funds. This subsection 10 is in addition to any other liability protection available under law.

11 (11) RECORDING OF STATUTORY RESERVE ACCOUNT STATEMENT. Each statutory 12 reserve account statement executed under this section shall bear the name of the 13 condominium as it appears on the declaration and shall be recorded with the register 14 of deeds of the county where the condominium instruments are recorded.

NOTE: Requires a declarant or association to establish a "statutory reserve account" to fund repairs and replacements of common elements other than routine maintenance, unless the declarant or association elects not to establish an account.

The statutory reserve account provisions generally apply only to exclusively residential condominiums, other than small condominiums. Small condominiums and mixed-use (residential and nonresidential units) condominiums may choose to be governed by the statutory reserve account provisions.

The statutory reserve account provisions expressly do not affect: (1) existing reserve accounts or similar accounts; or (2) reserve accounts or similar accounts that are not statutory reserve accounts established on or after the effective date of the bill.

The declarant must establish a statutory reserve account for a new condominium (a condominium established on or after the effective date of the bill) but the declarant may opt out of the requirement. If the declarant establishes a statutory reserve account, assessments for the account may first be assessed against a particular unit when a certificate of occupancy has been issued that applies to that unit. The declarant may defer payment of assessments on a particular unit until the unit is conveyed, but for not more than 5 years from the date the exterior construction of the building in which the unit is located is completed. If there are accrued reserve fund assessments against a unit, the declarant must disclose to the first purchaser of the unit whether any of the accrued assessments are included in the purchase price and, if not, how any accrued assessment will be paid.

If the declarant has opted out, establishment of an account must be addressed at the first annual meeting of the association held after, or at a special meeting held within one year of, termination of declarant control. A statutory reserve account is established by the association with the written consent of a majority of the unit votes. If the declarant has not opted out of the statutory reserve account requirement for a new condominium, the association at any time after the expiration of declarant control may elect to terminate the account with the written consent of at least two-thirds of the unit votes.

Existing condominiums (condominiums established before the effective date of the bill) must, within 18 months after the bill's effective date, or within 18 months after the expiration of declarant control, whichever is later, establish a statutory reserve account unless, with the written consent of at least two-thirds of the unit votes, the association elects not to establish an account.

More generally, an association may at any time elect to establish a statutory reserve account, with the written consent of a majority of the unit votes, or to terminate a statutory reserve account, with the written consent of at least two-thirds of the unit votes.

Factors that a declarant or association is to consider in determining the amount to be assessed unit owners for the statutory reserve account include: funds currently in the account; the estimated cost of repairing or replacing common elements, other than routine maintenance; the estimated remaining useful life of common elements; the approximate proportion of the estimated cost of repairing or replacing common elements that will be covered by the account and the approximate proportion that will be funded by other means; and any other factor considered relevant. In the case of a conversion condominium, the declarant must also consider the required report of an independent architect or engineer.

Funds in a statutory reserve account may be invested in any investment in which local governments are generally authorized to invest by statute.

Funds in a statutory reserve account may be used only for the repair and replacement of common elements, other than routine maintenance, unless there is written consent of at least two-thirds of the unit votes to use the funds for normal repair or maintenance, customary services or other operational costs in excess of amounts budgeted. If used for the latter purposes, the funds must be replaced within 3 years from the date of withdrawal from the account.

A "statutory reserve account statement" must be executed when a statutory reserve account is established or an election is made not to have or to terminate a statutory reserve account. If an election not to establish, or to terminate, a statutory reserve account is made, the statement must indicate how it is anticipated that future expenditures for repairs and replacements of common elements will be funded. The statement must be recorded with the register of deeds.

Finally, a declarant, unit owner, association, or director, officer, manager or employee of an association is not liable in connection with the establishment or termination, or decision not to establish or terminate, a statutory reserve account or for any deficiencies in a statutory reserve account that ~~are due~~ <sup>relate to</sup> the determination of amounts to be assessed for reserve funds.

- 1        SECTION 34. 703.165 (title) and (1) of the statutes are created to read:
- 2        703.165 (title) Lien for unpaid common expenses, unpaid damages, and
- 3        unpaid penalties.

1 (1) DEFINITION. In this section, "assessments" means regular and special 2 assessments for common expenses and charges, fines, or assessments against 3 specific units or unit owners for damages to the condominium or for penalties for 4 violations of the declaration, bylaws, or association rules.

31

NOTE: Creates a title for new s. 703.165 and a definition of assessment for use throughout the section. The definition expands the scope of the lien provisions of current s. 703.16 (3) to (9) (renumbered s. 703.165 (2) to (8) by SEC. of the bill). Currently, those lien provisions apply to failure to pay assessments for common expenses. The new definition, in combination with the treatment of s. 703.16 (3) to (9) by SEC. of the bill, expands the coverage of the lien provisions to include failure to pay charges, fines, or assessments for damages to the condominium and for violations of the declaration, bylaws, or association rules.

5 SECTION 35. 703.19 (8) of the statutes is amended to read:

6 703.19 (8) PRESERVATION OF THE RIGHT OF APPEAL. The owner of each unit taken 7 shall have the individual right of appeal of the necessity of taking and of the 8 condemnation award made for the taking. ~~An association shall have the right of~~ 9 ~~appeal of the necessity of taking of the common elements and the right of appeal of~~ 10 ~~the condemnation award made for the taking of the common elements. An appeal by~~ 11 ~~an association shall be binding upon the individual unit owners for the necessity of~~ 12 ~~taking or the condemnation award made for the taking of the common elements. The~~ 13 unit owners having an interest in the ownership of limited common elements may 14 individually or as a group appeal the necessity of taking or the condemnation award
 15 made for the taking of the limited common elements.

NOTE: Repeals the right of an association to appeal the necessity of taking, and the condemnation award made for the taking, of the common elements and the binding effect of the appeal upon individual unit owners. The revision reflects the policy judgment that individual unit owners should have the right of appeal. See, also, s. 703.195, created by SEC. of the bill, below, for a related provision.

16 SECTION 36. 703.195 of the statutes is created to read:

17 703.195 Acquisition of common elements by condemnors. (1)

20 YOU CONSENT TO ALLOWING THE ASSOCIATION TO NEGOTIATE AND 21 CONVEY YOUR INTEREST IN THE AFFECTED PORTION OF THE 22 CONDOMINIUM'S COMMON ELEMENTS.

23 IF YOU ALLOW THE ASSOCIATION TO ACT AS YOUR AGENT, YOU WILL

1       AFFECTED PORTION OF THE CONDOMINIUM'S COMMON ELEMENTS.
2       REGARDLESS OF WHETHER YOU CHOOSE TO NEGOTIATE ON YOUR OWN
3       OR TO ALLOW THE ASSOCIATION OR ANY OTHER PERSON OR ENTITY TO

8               (e) A prominent place for the unit owner to sign his or her name to indicate the 9       unit owner's objection to the association's representation of the unit owner in the 10       conveyance of the common elements at issue.

11               (5) METHOD OF OBJECTING BY UNIT OWNER. A unit owner who objects to the 12       association acting as the agent for the owner shall indicate the objection as provided 13       on the form under sub. (4) (e) and send the form, within 30 days after the notice under 14       sub. (3) is received, to the condemnor by U.S. mail to the address indicated on the 15       notice. The objection is made when the completed form is mailed to the condemnor.
16       Before initiating negotiations with the owner under s. 32.05 (2a) or 32.06 (2a), the 17       condemnor shall provide the association and those unit owners who have objected a 18       written list of all of the unit owners who have objected.

19               (6) NO OBJECTION BY UNIT OWNER; ASSOCIATION MAY ACT. If a unit owner does not 20       timely object under sub. (5), the unit owner is deemed to have agreed to the 21       association acting as the unit owner's representative in the conveyance of the 22       common elements at issue. Failure to object within the required time does not affect 23       any other rights of the unit owner under ch. 32.

24               (7) METHOD OF CONVEYANCE. The association shall execute any conveyance 25       under this section as the agent for each of the unit owners represented by the

1 association. The unit owners represented by the association shall be identified, by 2 name, on the conveyance.

3 (8) OBJECTION BY UNIT OWNER; UNIT OWNER RETAINS RIGHTS. A unit owner who 4 timely objects under sub. (5) retains all of his or her rights under ch. 32 with regard
5 to the acquisition and to unit ownership.

NOTE: Provides an optional procedure for acquiring a portion of the common elements for public projects, based on a Florida statute. [West's F.S.A. s. 73.073 (2001 Supplement).] The procedure applies to the acquisition of a portion of the common elements (not including limited common elements) by any condemner for a public purpose. "Acquisition" refers to obtaining title to real property by purchase or eminent domain.

In general terms, a condemner who seeks to acquire a portion of the common elements under the procedure is required to notify the association and to give specified notice of the proposed acquisition to each unit owner. If a unit owner fails to object to the association representing the unit owner in the property acquisition within 30 days after receiving the notice, the owner is deemed to have agreed to that representation in any subsequent proceeding relating to the acquisition of common elements at issue.

A unit owner who timely objects to representation by the association in the acquisition retains all of his or her rights with regard to the acquisition and all other rights pertaining to unit ownership.

The optional procedure may be used only to acquire common elements of a condominium created 6 months or more after the effective date of the bill.

6 SECTION 37. 703.20 (3) of the statutes is created to read:

7 703.20 (3) DECLARANT RESPONSIBILITIES FOR RECORDS. During the period of 8 declarant control under s. 703.15 (2) (c), the declarant is responsible for creating and 9 maintaining the financial and operational records of the association and shall turn 10 the records over to the directors elected under s. 703.15 (2) (f). During the period of 11 declarant control under s. 703.15 (2) (c) and for one year thereafter, upon written 12 request to the association by the lesser of 3 unit owners or the owners of 10% of the 13 units, not including units owned by the declarant, the association shall arrange for 14 an independent audit of its financial records, but no request may be made for an audit
15 within 24 months after the completion of a previous audit.

NOTE: Requires the creation and maintenance of, and provides means of access to, financial and operational records of the association during the period of declarant control.

The declarant is responsible for the creation and maintenance of the records during the period of declarant control and must turn the records over to the board of directors elected after the period of declarant control expires.

Also, during the period of declarant control and one year thereafter, requires the association to arrange for an independent audit of the association's financial records if requested by the lesser of 3 unit owners or the owners of 10% of the units (not including units owned by the declarant). A limit is provided on the frequency of requesting an audit.

1           SECTION 38. 703.24 of the statutes is repealed and recreated to read:

2           703.24 Remedies for violations by unit owner or tenant of a unit owner.

3           (1) DEFINITION. In this section, "violation" means failure to comply with this chapter 4           or the declaration, bylaws, or association rules.

5           (2) LIABILITY FOR UNIT OWNER VIOLATION. A unit owner who commits a violation
6           is liable for any charges, fines, or assessments imposed by the association pursuant 7           to the bylaws or association rules as a result of the violation and may be subject to 8           a temporary or permanent injunction.

9           (3) LIABILITY FOR VIOLATION BY TENANT. (a) If a tenant of a unit commits a 10          violation that results in a charge, fine, or assessment imposed by the association
11          pursuant to the bylaws or association rules, the tenant is liable for the charge, fine, 12          or assessment.

13          (b) If the association complies with the notice requirement of sub. (4), the owner
14          of the unit occupied by the tenant when the violation occurred is liable for any 15          charges, fines, or assessments imposed by the association for which the tenant is 16          liable under par. (a) that are not paid by the tenant within 30 days after receiving 17          the notice under sub. (4). This paragraph does not affect the liability of the tenant 18          to the unit owner for any charges, fines, or assessments paid by the unit owner under 19          this paragraph.

20          (4) NOTICE REQUIREMENT FOR VIOLATION BY TENANT. If an association imposes a 21          charge, fine, or assessment as a result of a violation by a tenant of a unit in the

1 condominium, the association shall give notice to the tenant by any method under 2 s. 704.21 (1) (a) to (e) and to the owner of the unit occupied by the tenant by any 3 method under s. 704.21 (2) (a) to (d). The notice shall include all of the following:

4 (a) The amount of charges, fines, or assessments for which the tenant is liable.

5 (b) Notice that if the tenant fails to pay the association the amount for which 6 the tenant is liable within 30 days after the tenant receives the notice, the owner is 7 liable to the association for the amount unpaid by the tenant although the tenant
8 may be liable to the unit owner for any amounts the unit owner pays.

9 (5) OTHER LIABILITY NOT AFFECTED. This section does not otherwise affect the 10 liability of a unit owner or tenant who commits a violation.

NOTE: 1. Repeals and recreates s. 703.24, relating to liability of a unit owner for damages or injunctive relief caused by the failure of the unit owner to comply with ch. 703, the declaration, or bylaws. Current s. 703.24 provides as follows:

"If any unit owner fails to comply with this chapter, the declaration or bylaws, the unit owner may be sued for damages caused by the failure or for injunctive relief, or both, by the association or by any other unit owner."

2. Subsection (2) revises current s. 703.24. It makes a unit owner who fails to comply with ch. 703, the declaration, the bylaws, or the association rules liable for any resulting charges, fines or assessments imposed pursuant to association bylaws or rules. Deletion of the current reference to suing a unit owner for damages for failure to comply is not intended to change the liability of a unit owner to the association or any other unit owner for damages caused by failure to comply with ch. 703, the declaration, bylaws, or rules. In this regard, see sub. (5).

3. Subsections (3) and (4) are new. The provisions make a tenant who commits a violation liable for any charges, fines, or assessments imposed by the association for the violation. Subsection (3) (b) provides that if the association complies with the notice requirement of sub. (4), the owner of the unit occupied by the tenant when the violation occurred is liable for any association charges, fines, or assessments for which the tenant is liable that remain unpaid 30 days after the tenant received notice. Double recovery by an association of any charges, fines, or assessments is not intended. Subsection (4) sets forth the notice requirement for holding the unit owner liable for a tenant's violation if the tenant does not pay the charges, fines, or assessments within the specified time.

See, also, SECS. and which expand the lien provisions of current s. 703.16 (3) to (9) (renumbered s. 703.165) to also include, among other things, unpaid assessments for penalties for violations of the declaration, bylaws, or association rules.

11 SECTION 39. 703.25 (4) of the statutes is created to read:

1           703.25 (4) An action to abate a nuisance may be brought against an association
2 as provided under s. 823.015.

NOTE: For convenience, cross-references the provision created by the bill in ch. 68
823. See SEC. of the bill.

3           SECTION 40. 703.255 of the statutes is repealed.

NOTE: Repeals the current provision that deals with uncompleted units (other than those included in an expanding condominium under s. 703.26, stats.). Under that provision, if a declarant fails to complete any unit described in the declaration within 5 years after recording the declaration, the declarant must obtain the agreement of at least 75% of the unit owners permitting completion of the units within 5 years of the date of the agreement. If the agreement is not obtained, the declarant loses the uncompleted units (the declarant must remove the units from the declaration and adjust percentage interests and votes accordingly).

4           SECTION 41. 703.265 of the statutes is created to read:

5           703.265 Addendum to plat to reflect changes in building codes or 6 zoning ordinances. (1) If the revision or adoption of a building code or zoning
7 ordinance prevents or substantially affects the construction of a unit or common 8 elements as platted, the declarant may reasonably modify the condominium plat, by 9 addendum, to the extent necessary to comply with the code or ordinance in order to 10 construct the unit or common elements.

11           (2) If the revision or adoption of a building code or zoning ordinance prevents 12 or substantially affects the reconstruction of a unit or common element as platted, 13 the declarant, unit owner, or association, as appropriate, may reasonably modify the 14 condominium plat, by addendum, to the extent necessary to comply with the code or 15 ordinance in order to reconstruct the unit or common elements.

16           (3) An addendum made under this section shall be recorded as provided under 17 s. 703.095.

NOTE: Allows for the amendment of a condominium plat if the revision or adoption of a building code or zoning ordinance prevents or substantially affects the construction or reconstruction of a unit or common elements (including limited common elements) as platted. If such a revision or adoption of a building code or zoning ordinance occurs, the declarant, unit owner, or association, as appropriate, may reasonably modify the condominium plat to the extent necessary to comply with the code or ordinance in order to construct or reconstruct the unit or common elements. An amendment under this section is not subject to s. 703.11 (5); see SEC. of the bill.

17

1 SECTION 42. 703.27 of the statutes is amended to read:

2 703.27 Zoning and building regulations. (1) A zoning or other land use
3 ordinance or regulations may not prohibit the condominium form of ownership or 4 impose any requirements upon a condominium ~~which~~ that it would not impose upon 5 ~~a physically identical if the development were~~ under a different form of ownership.
6 No provision of a state or local building code may be applied differently to a building
7 in a condominium than it would be applied ~~to a if the building of similar structure~~
8 ~~or occupancy were~~ under a different form of ownership unless the different 9 application is expressly permitted in that provision and the different application is 10 reasonably related to the nature of condominium ownership. No subdivision
11 ordinance may apply to any condominium unless the ordinance is, by its express 12 terms, applicable to condominiums and the application is reasonably related to the 13 nature of condominium ownership.

14 (2) No county, city, or other jurisdiction may enact any law, ordinance, or 15 regulation ~~which~~ that would impose a greater burden or restriction on a 16 condominium ~~that is not imposed on all other property of similar character not~~ 17 ~~subjected to a condominium declaration~~ or provide a lower level of services to a 18 condominium than would be imposed or provided if the condominium were under a 19 different form of ownership.

NOTE: 1. Clarifies, with editorial changes, the prohibition on imposing requirements under zoning or other land use ordinances or regulations that discriminate against the condominium form of ownership.

2. Clarifies the prohibition on applying a provision of a state or local building code differently to a building in a condominium than it would be applied if the building were under a different form of ownership, unless the different application is expressly permitted by the building code. Further clarifies that if the different application is expressly permitted, it must be reasonably related to the nature of condominium ownership. Similarly, clarifies that no subdivision ordinance may apply to a condominium unless, as currently required, the ordinance is expressly applicable to condominiums and, as added by the bill, its application is reasonably related to the nature of condominium ownership.

3. Clarifies the prohibition against enactment of any law, ordinance or regulation that would impose a burden or restriction on a condominium that is not imposed on all other property of similar character not subjected to a condominium declaration to specify that the law, ordinance or regulation may not impose a "greater" burden or restriction and, additionally, may not provide a <sup>lower</sup> level of service to a condominium than would be imposed or provided if the condominium were under a different form of ownership. X

1 SECTION 43. 703.275 (1) of the statutes is amended to read:

2 703.275 (1) AGREEMENT; LEGAL EFFECT. Any 2 or more condominiums, including
3 2 or more small condominiums or any combination of small condominiums and other 4 condominiums, by agreement of the unit owners as provided in this section, may be 5 merged or consolidated into a single condominium. Unless the agreement otherwise
6 provides, the condominium resulting from a merger or consolidation is, for all 7 purposes, the legal successor of all of the preexisting condominiums and the 8 operations and activities of all associations of the preexisting condominiums shall be 9 merged or consolidated into a single association which shall hold all powers, rights,
10 obligations, assets and liabilities of the preexisting associations. The resultant 11 condominium must bear the name of one of the preexisting condominiums.

NOTE: Authorizes 2 or more small condominiums, or any combination of small condominiums and other condominiums, to merge, as provided under the current merger provision—s. 703.275, stats.

12 SECTION 44. 703.275 (2) of the statutes is renumbered 703.275 (2) (bc).

13 SECTION 45. 703.275 (2) (ac) of the statutes is created to read:

14 703.275 (2) (ac) In this subsection, "allocated interests" means the undivided 15 percentage interest in the common elements, the liability for common expenses, and 16 the number of votes at meetings of the association appurtenant to each unit.

NOTE: Relocates the defined term from the general definition section of ch. 703 (s. 703.02) to s. 703.275(2), the only provision within the chapter that uses the defined term. X

17 SECTION 46. 703.315 of the statutes is created to read:

703.315 Lease or rental agreements for residential units. (1)

DEFINITIONS. In this section:

(a) "Condominium rental agreement" means an agreement, whether oral or written, for the rental or lease of a residential condominium unit by the same tenant for a period of more than one month.

(b) "Tenant" means any of the following:

1. A person occupying or entitled to present or future occupancy of a condominium unit under a condominium rental agreement.

2. A periodic tenant, as defined in s. 704.01 (2), that pays rent on a month-to-month or greater recurring interval of time.

(c) "Unit owner" means the owner of a unit that is rented or leased under a condominium rental agreement or by a periodic tenant.

(2) REQUIRED AGREEMENT FOR COMPLIANCE. <sup>It is a covenant or condition of</sup> A condominium rental agreement shall include a covenant or condition that the tenant agrees to comply with this chapter, the rules and bylaws of the association, and the provisions of the declaration. <sup>It is a covenant or condition of the tenancy of a</sup> Before a periodic tenant occupies a unit, the unit owner shall require <sup>that</sup> the tenant to agree to comply with this chapter, the rules and bylaws of the association, and the provisions of the declaration.

(3) COPY OF WRITTEN AGREEMENT TO ASSOCIATION. Within 5 business days after entering into or renewing a written condominium rental agreement, the unit owner shall provide a copy of the agreement to the association. The association shall keep a copy of any condominium rental agreement on file while the agreement is in effect.

(4) CONTACT OF UNIT OWNER AND TENANT BY ASSOCIATION. The association may contact or give notice to the tenant or unit owner by:

Periodic tenant, as defined in sub. (1)(b)2,

1 (a) Making the contact or giving the notice by the means indicated by the tenant
2 or unit owner in writing to the association.

3 (b) If par. (a) does not apply, by any method under s. 704.21 (1) (a) to (e), in the 4 case of the tenant, or by any method under s. 704.21 (2) (a) to (d), in the case of the 5 unit owner.

6 (5) COPY OF CONDOMINIUM DOCUMENTS TO TENANT. Before a tenant occupies a 7 unit, the unit owner shall provide a copy of the declaration and the association
8 bylaws and rules to the tenant or <sup>place</sup> ~~post~~ the information in the unit.

9 (6) TIME SHARE NOT COVERED. This section does not apply to a time-share unit 10 governed under ch. 707.

NOTE: Provides a measure of regulation relating to agreements, whether oral or written, for the rental or lease of a residential condominium unit by the same tenant for a period of more than one month ~~or periodic tenancies with a recurring interval of time of one month or more~~ <sup>and to</sup> ~~(condominium rental agreements)~~. <sup>covered</sup>

Under sub. (2), it is a covenant or condition of a <sup>covered</sup> condominium rental agreement that the tenant agrees to comply with ch. 703 (condominiums), the rules and bylaws of the association, and the provisions of the declaration. By making compliance a covenant or condition of the agreement as a matter of law, failure of a tenant to comply with the chapter, declaration, bylaws, or rules will trigger the provisions of ch. 704 (landlord and tenant) that relate to breach of a rental agreement, <sup>or tenancy</sup> or lease by a tenant.

Under sub. (3), if a written condominium rental agreement is entered into, the unit owner must provide a copy within five business days to the association. The association must keep a copy of the agreement on file while the agreement is in effect. <sup>or periodic tenancy</sup>
