11 requirement that an unemancipated minor obtain parental or other consent or 12 a judicial waiver of that consent requirement before she may have an abortion.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill makes various changes to the law that requires an unemancipated minor to obtain parental or other consent or a judicial waiver of that consent requirement before she may have an abortion (generally referred to as “the parental consent” law).

Consent or judicial waiver requirement

Under current law, subject to certain exceptions, before an unemancipated minor may have an abortion, she must have the written consent of one of her parents; or of her guardian or legal custodian, if one has been appointed; or of an adult family member; or of one of her foster parents or treatment foster parents, if the minor has been placed in a foster home or a treatment foster home and the minor’s parent has signed a waiver granting the department of health and family services, a county department of human services or social services, the foster parent, or the treatment foster parent the authority to consent to medical services or treatment on behalf of the minor; unless the minor obtains a waiver of this requirement from the circuit court. Current law defines “adult family member” as a grandparent, aunt, uncle, sister, or brother who is at least 25 years of age.

This bill eliminates the authority of an adult family member, a foster parent, a treatment foster parent, or a parent who does not have legal custody of an unemancipated minor to consent to an abortion for the minor.

The bill also requires the parent, guardian, or legal custodian who consents to the minor’s abortion to sign and acknowledge the consent document, that is, declare that he or she has signed the consent document for the purpose stated in the consent document, before a notary public, who must determine, either from personal knowledge or from satisfactory evidence consisting of one or more forms of identification issued by a governmental agency, that the person appearing before the notary public and making the acknowledgment is the person whose signature is on the consent document. In addition, the bill requires the parent, guardian, or legal custodian to verify upon oath or affirmation before the notary public that he or she is the parent, guardian, or legal custodian of the minor, and requires the notary public to determine, either from personal knowledge or from satisfactory evidence consisting of one or more forms of identification issued by a governmental agency, that the person appearing before the notary public and making the verification is the person whose signature is on the statement verified. The bill also requires the notary public to keep confidential any information acquired in taking the acknowledgment and verification.

Exceptions to consent or judicial waiver requirement

Under current law, the consent or judicial waiver requirement does not apply if the person who intends to perform or induce the abortion believes, to the best of his or her medical judgment based on the facts of the case before him or her, that a medical emergency exists that complicates the pregnancy so as to require an immediate abortion. This bill provides that the consent or judicial waiver requirement does not apply if a medical emergency, as defined in the law requiring voluntary and informed consent to an abortion (informed consent law), exists. The informed consent law defines a “medical emergency” as a condition that, in a physician’s reasonable medical judgment, so complicates the medical condition of a pregnant woman as to necessitate the immediate abortion of her pregnancy to avert her death or for which a 24-hour delay in the performance or inducement of the abortion will create a serious risk of substantial and irreversible impairment of one or more of the woman's major bodily functions.

In addition, under current law, the consent or judicial waiver requirement does not apply if a psychiatrist or psychologist states in writing that he or she believes that the minor is likely to commit suicide rather than seek consent or a judicial waiver. This bill eliminates that exception.

Civil liability for violation of consent or judicial waiver requirement

Under current law, a person who intentionally performs or induces an abortion on or for a minor without prior consent or waiver of the consent requirement by a court is liable to the minor and to the minor's parent, guardian, and legal custodian for damages arising out of the performance or inducement of the abortion. This bill eliminates the requirement that the violation of the consent or judicial waiver requirement be intentional and instead requires that the violation be committed under circumstances in which the person knew or, in the exercise of reasonable care, should have known that the consent or judicial waiver requirement was not complied with.

Judicial waiver procedures

Under current law, a minor who is seeking an abortion, or a member of the clergy on behalf of the minor, may petition a circuit court for a waiver of the consent requirement. If the minor files a petition on her own behalf, the minor must be present at an initial appearance at which the court appoints counsel for the minor and sets a date for a hearing to determine whether the minor is mature and well-informed enough to make the abortion decision on her own or whether the performance or inducement of an abortion is in the minor's best interests. If a member of the clergy files a petition on behalf of the minor, the member of the clergy may be present at the initial appearance instead of the minor, and the court need not appoint counsel for the minor or set a date for a hearing on the petition. Instead, the member of the clergy must file with the petition an affidavit stating that the member of the clergy has explored with the minor alternative choices for managing the minor's pregnancy, including keeping the baby or placing the baby for adoption, and has discussed with the minor the possibility of obtaining consent for the abortion and whether or not obtaining that consent would be in the minor's best interests. The court may grant the petition, without hearing, based on the member of the clergy's affidavit.

This bill eliminates the option of permitting a member of the clergy to file a petition and affidavit on behalf of the minor. Under the bill, the minor must file her own petition and be present at the initial appearance, and the court must appoint counsel for the minor and hold a hearing on the petition.

In addition, under current law, the court must hear evidence relating to the emotional development, maturity, intellect, and understanding of the minor and the understanding of the minor about the nature of, possible consequences of, and alternatives to the intended abortion before the court may grant a waiver of the consent requirement. This bill requires the court, in addition to hearing the evidence that the court must hear under current law, to hear evidence relating to the nature of the relationship between the minor and her parents before the court may grant a waiver of the consent requirement.
