Peter,

Good morning. Attached is the language for an Assembly Joint Resolution declaring September 11th as a state day of remembrance. It is the Speaker's intention to take this resolution up on October 2nd. To that end, I would respectfully request your prompt drafting of this AJR as we would like to circulate for co-sponsorship and introduce as quickly as possible. Thank you in advance for your consideration. If you have any questions, please call me at 266-3387.

Relating to: Declaring September 11th as a State Day of Remembrance

Whereas, the tragic events of September 11th, 2001 brought sorrow to our nation and Wisconsin and especially the families who lost loved ones; and

Whereas the actions of terrorists were designed to strike fear in the hearts and minds of all Americans and break our nation's spirit; and

Whereas in the hours and days which followed these tragic events, the strength of America came shining through with extraordinary acts of courage and sacrifice to rescue those in harm's way, selfless acts of compassion and sympathy for the victims of this tragedy, willing acts of volunteers to help in any way possible, and the patriotic acts of Americans to show their support for this great nation and all that it stands for; and

Whereas, the Wisconsin State Legislature commends the courageous actions of firefighters, police and other rescue workers and all Americans including the citizens of this state who heeded the call to help the victims of this terrible tragedy; and

Whereas, the Wisconsin State Legislature is united in its support for the actions of President George W. Bush and the Congress to declare war on terrorism and the rogue nations that aid and abet terrorists; and

Whereas, the Wisconsin State Legislature, calls upon the people of Wisconsin to join with them in supporting the brave men and women in our Armed Forces as they carry out their noble mission to rid the world of the scourge of terrorism; and

Whereas, the Wisconsin State Legislature salutes the unity and patriotism of the American people, which include people of diverse religious beliefs and ethnic heritage; now therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That the members of the Wisconsin State Legislature declare September 11th as a State Day of Remembrance.

Be it further resolved, the Wisconsin State Legislature, extends its deepest condolences to the victims, especially those with ties to Wisconsin, as well as to their family, friends, and loved ones.
