13 ASSEMBLY RULE 45 (1) Whenever a committee reports on a proposal referred to 14 that committee, the speaker or presiding officer shall refer or rerefer the proposal, 15 except as otherwise provided in subs. (2) and (3), to the calendar for the 2nd
16 legislative day thereafter for 2nd reading or to the committee on rules for calendar
17 scheduling or to another standing or special committee, unless it is his or her 18 judgment that reference of the proposal to the joint committee on finance is required 19 by law or rule and the speaker or presiding officer refers the proposal to that 20 committee. On any legislative day when a committee report, showing the speaker's 21 subsequent referrals, has been provided to the members ~~prior to~~ before the 3rd order
22 of business, ~~such~~ the report ~~shall~~ may not be read by the chief clerk to the members,
23 but the content of the committee report and the speaker's referrals and rereferrals
24 shall be reproduced in the journal.

1 (2) Any ~~proposal~~ bill originally referred to the joint survey committee on 2 retirement systems as required by law, and subsequently reported to the assembly, 3 shall be referred by the speaker or presiding officer to a standing committee except 4 the committee on rules and shall, when reported by that committee, be referred as 5 provided in sub. (1).

6 (3) Any ~~proposal~~ bill originally referred to the joint survey committee on tax 7 exemptions as required by law, and subsequently reported to the assembly, shall be 8 referred by the speaker or presiding officer either to a standing committee, or to the 9 calendar for the 2nd legislative day thereafter, or to the committee on rules.

10 (4) When a ~~proposal~~ bill, during or after consideration by a standing committee 11 or during consideration by the assembly, is found to be without the report of one or 12 more joint survey committees to which it should have been referred, the ~~proposal~~ bill 13 shall be so referred by the speaker or presiding officer.

14 (5) Beginning on inauguration day and on any day of the regular biennial 15 session period, proposals may be reported by one committee and referred by the 16 speaker or presiding officer to another committee or to the calendar if ~~such~~ the action
17 is not in conflict with any limitations imposed by the session schedule or otherwise
18 agreed to by both houses. Whenever ~~such~~ the referral of a proposal occurs on a day 19 on which the assembly does not meet, the chief clerk shall record in the journal the 20 appropriate information concerning the referral.

21 SECTION 48. Assembly rule 46 (2) to (4) are amended to read:

22 ASSEMBLY RULE 46 (2) After a proposal receives its 2nd reading, the assembly
23 shall consider every amendment to the proposal recommended in the latest 24 committee report on the proposal and any additional amendments offered after ~~such~~ 25 the report unless precluded from consideration under rule 55 (3). If there is no

1 committee report, all amendments shall be considered unless precluded from 2 consideration under rule 55 (3).

3 (3) Following action on all pending amendments to an assembly bill, or to an 4 assembly joint resolution proposing a change in the state or U.S. constitution, and 5 the failure of any motion to indefinitely postpone ~~such~~ the proposal, the question
6 ~~shall be~~ is: “Shall the proposal be ordered engrossed and read a 3rd time?”

7 (4) Following action on all pending assembly amendments to a senate bill, or 8 to a senate joint resolution proposing a change in the state or U.S. constitution, and 9 the failure of any motion for nonconcurrence, the question ~~shall be~~ is: “Shall the 10 proposal be ordered to a 3rd reading?”

11 SECTION 49. Assembly rule 47 (3) is amended to read:

12 ASSEMBLY RULE 47 (3) When the assembly fails to adopt an adverse committee
13 recommendation, the main question shall ~~then~~ be stated in the affirmative.

14 SECTION 50. Assembly rule 48 is amended to read:

15 ASSEMBLY RULE 48. Third reading and decisions on proposals. (1) The 16 purpose of the 3rd reading stage is to make a final decision on each proposal requiring 17 3 readings ~~which~~ that is submitted to the assembly.

18 (2) Following the 3rd reading of any bill or of any joint resolution proposing a
19 change in the state or U.S. constitution, and the failure of any motion to indefinitely 20 postpone, reject, or nonconcur, the question on assembly bills ~~shall be~~ is “Shall the 21 bill be passed?”, on assembly joint resolutions ~~shall be~~ is “Shall the joint resolution
22 be adopted?”, and on senate proposals ~~shall be~~ is “Shall the proposal be concurred 23 in?”.

24 SECTION 51. Assembly rule 49 (1) (b) and (2) are amended to read:

1 ASSEMBLY RULE 49 (1) (b) Rejection (assembly amendments, assembly
2 resolutions, and assembly joint resolutions).

3 (2) Once an assembly proposal has been adversely disposed of, another
4 assembly proposal identical or substantially similar in nature, but not more limited
5 in scope, ~~shall~~ may not be considered by the assembly in that biennial session.

6 SECTION 52. Assembly rule 50 is amended to read:

7 ASSEMBLY RULE 50. Messaging to the senate. (1) Each proposal ~~which that~~ 8 passes or is adopted after a 3rd reading, and each senate proposal adversely disposed 9 of by the assembly, shall be transmitted to the senate immediately after any motion 10 to reconsider ~~such the~~ the passage, adoption, or adverse disposition ~~has failed~~ fails or the 11 time for making ~~such the~~ the motion ~~has expired~~ expires, together with a certified report 12 of the assembly's action.

13 (2) Immediately following adoption of a conference report on a senate proposal, 14 the passage of an assembly bill notwithstanding the objections of the governor, or 15 assembly action on a vetoed senate bill, ~~such the~~ the proposal shall be transmitted to the 16 senate together with a certified report of the assembly's action.

17 SECTION 53. Assembly rule 52 (1), (2) (intro.) and (3) are amended to read:

18 ASSEMBLY RULE 52 (1) Amendments to proposals may be offered ~~during the~~ 19 ~~period of time following~~ after introduction of and preceding a decision on the proposal 20 at the end of the 2nd reading stage, and as authorized by rule 73 (9).

21 (2) (intro.) Amendments to amendments may be offered, but amendments in 22 the 3rd degree ~~shall~~ may not be accepted.

23 (3) Every amendment received by the chief clerk shall be provided as provided 24 by the assembly rules.

25 SECTION 54. Assembly rule 52 (4) is created to read:

1 ASSEMBLY RULE 52 (4) An amendment to a report of a committee of conference
2 may not be offered.

3 SECTION 55. Assembly rule 53 (intro.) and (4) (b) are amended to read:

4 ASSEMBLY RULE 53. Drafting of amendments. (intro.) Except as authorized
5 in sub. (2), amendments shall be drafted by the legislative reference bureau before 6 being offered for consideration to the assembly, or to any committee by a person other
7 than a member thereof. ~~No~~ An amendment prepared by the legislative reference 8 bureau may not be received for consideration if changes have been made ~~in~~ to the 9 ~~5-copy set~~ draft prepared by the bureau. Amendments may be deposited at the chief 10 clerk's office on any day of the legislative session for the purpose of allowing them to 11 be provided ~~prior to~~ before the 2nd reading stage for the proposals to which the 12 amendments pertain.

13 (4) (b) Following the commencement of debate on any floor amendment the 14 principal author may request permission to substitute the version of the amendment 15 drafted by the legislative reference bureau for the version provided or read to the 16 membership by the chief clerk. ~~Unless such~~ the permission is requested and granted,
17 the substantive text of any floor amendment adopted by the assembly ~~shall remain~~ 18 remains as provided or read to the membership by the chief clerk, but the legislative 19 reference bureau shall prepare a copy ~~which~~ that incorporates any nonsubstantive, 20 technical corrections required by rule 36.

21 SECTION 56. Assembly rule 54 (1), (2), (3) (intro.) and (d) to (g) and (4) (intro.), 22 (b), (d) and (f) are amended to read:

23 ASSEMBLY RULE 54 (1) General statement: The assembly ~~shall~~ may not consider 24 any assembly amendment or assembly substitute amendment ~~which~~ that relates to 25 a different subject or is intended to accomplish a different purpose than that of the

1 proposal to which it relates or ~~which~~ that, if adopted and passed, would require a
2 relating clause for the proposal which is substantially different from the proposal's
3 original relating clause or ~~which~~ that would totally alter the nature of the proposal.

4 (2) Procedure: The presiding officer shall rule on the admissibility of any 5 assembly amendment or assembly substitute amendment when the question of 6 germaneness is raised, but any such question ~~shall~~ is not be in order once ~~an~~ the 7 amendment ~~has been~~ is adopted.

8 (3) (intro.) Assembly amendments ~~which~~ that are not germane include:

9 (d) An amendment: 1) amending a statute or session law when the purpose of 10 the ~~proposal~~ bill is limited to repealing ~~such~~ the law; or 2) repealing a statute or 11 session law when the purpose of the ~~proposal~~ bill is limited to amending ~~such~~ the law.

12 (e) An amendment ~~which~~ that negates the effect of another assembly 13 amendment previously adopted.

14 (f) An amendment ~~which~~ that substantially expands the scope of the proposal.

15 (g) An amendment to a bill when legislative action on that bill is by law limited 16 to passage, concurrence, indefinite postponement, or nonconcurrence as introduced.

17 (4) (intro.) Amendments ~~which~~ that are germane include:

18 (b) An amendment ~~which~~ that accomplishes the same purpose in a different 19 manner.

20 (d) An amendment adding appropriations necessary to fulfill the original 21 intent of a ~~proposal~~ bill.

22 (f) An amendment ~~which~~ that changes the effective date of a repeal, reduces 23 the scope of a repeal, or adds a short-term nonstatutory transitional provision to 24 facilitate a repeal.

25 SECTION 57. Assembly rule 55 (1) (a) and (c) and (2) are amended to read:

1 ASSEMBLY RULE 55 (1) (a) Substitute amendments offered ~~prior to~~ before the 2 present consideration of the proposal shall be considered beginning with the 3 substitute amendment most recently received.

4 (c) Substitute amendments offered during the consideration of a substitute
5 amendment to the proposal shall be considered in the sequence in which received,
6 but only if ~~no other~~ another substitute amendment has not been adopted.

7 (2) (a) Whenever a substitute amendment is before the assembly, simple
8 amendments to it shall be considered in numerical sequence ~~prior to~~ before action
9 on the substitute amendment.

10 (b) Whenever a simple amendment is before the assembly, amendments to it
11 shall be considered in numerical sequence ~~prior to~~ before action on the simple 12 amendment.

13 SECTION 57m. Assembly rule 56 (1) is amended to read:

14 ASSEMBLY RULE 56 (1) Any member who desires to speak in debate or submit 15 any matter to the assembly shall rise in his or her assigned place and respectfully 16 address the presiding officer. Upon being recognized, the member shall confine his 17 or her remarks to the question before the assembly and shall avoid personalities. A 18 member may be recognized or addressed only by the number of the member's district 19 or by the county or municipality in which the member resides.

20 SECTION 58. Assembly rule 57 (1) (intro.) and (f) are amended to read:

21 ASSEMBLY RULE 57 (1) (intro.) Once a member has been recognized and has the 22 floor, the member may speak without interruption unless questions arise ~~which~~ that 23 require immediate consideration. Such questions are:

24 (f) Rising to ask whether the member who has the floor will yield to a proper 25 question. The member who has the floor may yield to a proper question even if the

1 member obtained the floor for the purpose of making a motion or raising a question
2 which that is not debatable.

3 SECTION 59. Assembly rule 58 (2) and (3) are amended to read:

4 ASSEMBLY RULE 58 (2) When the presiding officer calls a member to order, ~~that~~
5 the member ~~shall~~ may not speak, except in explanation, until it is determined 6 whether or not the member is in order.

7 (3) When a member is called to order for the use of improper or disorderly 8 language, the specific words to which exception has been taken shall be put in 9 writing, thus enabling the presiding officer better to be able to judge whether the 10 words spoken were in violation of the assembly rules.

11 SECTION 60. Assembly rule 59 (intro.) and (3) are amended to read:

12 ASSEMBLY RULE 59. Conduct during debate. (intro.) Unless permission is 13 given by unanimous consent or the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members 14 present, ~~no~~ a member may not:

15 (3) Display documents or exhibits or read aloud from documents other than 16 from the proposal ~~then~~ under debate or any amendment thereto, or from any statute, 17 session law, constitutional provision, assembly rule, or joint rule directly related to 18 the proposal or its amendments.

19 SECTION 61. Assembly rule 60 (1) is amended to read:

20 ASSEMBLY RULE 60 (1) Whenever the assembly has one or more calendars
21 pending of a later date than the calendar on which the assembly is ~~then~~ working,
22 debate is limited, as follows:

23 (a) ~~No~~ A member may not speak for more than 5 minutes on any question.

24 (b) ~~No~~ A question may not be considered for more than 20 minutes.

25 SECTION 62. Assembly rule 61 (intro.) and (1) to (3) are amended to read:

1 ASSEMBLY RULE 61. Questions of privilege. (intro.) Questions of privilege are 2 under the immediate control of the presiding officer and the assembly. Such 3 questions pertain to the rights, integrity, and safety of the assembly collectively, to 4 the rights, reputation, or conduct of members of the assembly in their representative
5 capacity, or to the conduct of government in general.

6 (1) “ASSEMBLY PRIVILEGE”: With recognition by the presiding officer, any 7 member may raise and discuss a question pertaining to the safety, dignity, decorum,
8 comfort, rights, organization, or officers of the assembly ~~which~~ that requires 9 immediate attention.

10 (2) “PERSONAL PRIVILEGE”: With recognition by the presiding officer, any 11 member may rise to explain a personal matter ~~which~~ that affects the rights,
12 reputation, and conduct of the member in his or her representative capacity. ~~No~~ A 13 pending question may not be discussed in ~~any such~~ the explanation.

14 (3) “SPECIAL PRIVILEGE”: Any member desiring to make a statement on a matter 15 other than one of assembly or personal privilege may rise and, with recognition by 16 the presiding officer and within any time limits determined by the presiding officer 17 or the assembly, may discuss any subject relative to state or local government, the 18 conduct of public officials in relation to their official duties, or other matters 19 concerning the public welfare, or any question pertaining to the rights of the 20 assembly collectively, its safety, dignity, or the integrity of its proceedings.

21 SECTION 63. Assembly rule 62 (2), (3) (a) and (b) 1., (3m), (6) and (7) are 22 amended to read:

23 ASSEMBLY RULE 62 (2) ~~No~~ A member may not speak more than once on any point 24 of order.

1 (3) (a) Immediately announce and explain a ruling on a point of order which 2 that has been raised; or

3 (b) 1. When the point of order concerns a proposal or a question currently 4 pending on such proposal, taking the point of order under advisement ~~shall remove~~ 5 removes the proposal from further consideration until the presiding officer
6 announces the ruling on the point of order.

7 (3m) The presiding officer shall rule on a point of order within 7 legislative days
8 after the point of order is raised or on the final legislative day of the last ~~scheduled~~
9 general-business floorperiod preceding the veto review session, whichever is earlier.

10 (6) Any member may appeal a ruling of the presiding officer on any point of 11 order. When an appeal is made, the question ~~shall be~~ is: “Shall the decision of the 12 chair stand as the decision of the assembly?”

13 (7) Appeals are debatable and ~~shall be~~ are decided by a majority of the members
14 present and voting on a roll call vote. The presiding officer may vote on appeals.

15 SECTION 64. Assembly rule 63 is amended to read:

16 ASSEMBLY RULE 63. Putting a motion. When a motion is made, it shall be 17 stated by the presiding officer or read by the chief clerk ~~prior to~~ before debate.

18 SECTION 65. Assembly rule 64 is amended to read:

19 ASSEMBLY RULE 64. Seconding. Whenever a requested action is required to 20 be seconded, immediately after the request is made, the presiding officer shall ask
21 if there are sufficient seconds. Any member wishing to be a second shall then stand 22 in his or her assigned place until counted. The presiding officer shall count the 23 seconds and immediately announce whether or not there are sufficient seconds for 24 the request to be granted by the assembly.

1 SECTION 66. Assembly rule 65 (1) (intro.) and (i), (2) (h), (3) (b) and (4) are
2 amended to read:

3 ASSEMBLY RULE 65 (1) (intro.) When a main question is under debate the 4 following privileged motions and requests are in order if appropriate under the rules
5 governing motions, requests, and proposals:

6 (i) To ~~introduce~~ offer and ask consideration of a privileged resolution [rules 33
7 and 43].

8 (2) (h) To postpone indefinitely, reject, or nonconcur in a proposal [rules 49 and 9 72].

10 (3) (b) Amendments to amendable motions are not in order ~~as long as no~~ while 11 a question of higher precedence is pending; and

12 (4) If any motion is made while no other question is before the assembly, or is 13 made subject to qualifications not specifically authorized in ~~these~~ the assembly 14 rules, ~~such~~ the motion loses its precedence and becomes a main motion, subject to the 15 rules that apply to main motions.

16 SECTION 67. Assembly rule 66 (1) (intro.) and (f) and (2) are amended to read:

17 ASSEMBLY RULE 66 (1) (intro.) In addition to the motions and requests listed in 18 rule 65 (1) and (2), and subject to the limitations imposed by other rules, the following 19 incidental motions, requests, and questions are in order while a proposal or question 20 is under debate:

21 (f) A request or motion by the maker of a pending motion that it be withdrawn,
22 ~~provided that~~ if rule 73 (6) does not apply.

23 (2) The motions, requests, and questions listed in sub. (1) do not have ~~no~~ an 24 order of precedence, can be initiated at any time they are timely, and shall be

1 disposed of before any question to which they relate is returned to or any other
2 incidental motion, request, or question is entertained.

3 SECTION 68. Assembly rule 67 is amended to read:

4 ASSEMBLY RULE 67. Nondebatable motions. Any motion to adjourn, recess,
5 end debate, or suspend the rules, and all incidental questions relating to such 6 motions including appeals, ~~shall be~~ are decided without debate.

7 SECTION 69. Assembly rule 68 is amended to read:

8 ASSEMBLY RULE 68. Amendments to motions to be germane. Amendments 9 to amendable motions ~~shall comply with~~ are subject to the rules of germaneness in 10 rule 54 as if they were amendments to proposals and amendments.

11 SECTION 70. Assembly rule 69 (3) and (4) are amended to read:

12 ASSEMBLY RULE 69 (3) Two consecutive motions to adjourn shall are not be in 13 order unless other significant business has intervened between the motions or unless 14 ~~there is~~ no other business is pending before the assembly.

15 (4) While a motion remains undecided pending the chair's presiding officer's 16 ruling on a point of order taken under advisement, it is dilatory to enter a 17 substantially similar motion on the same question, but it is proper to request an 18 expansion of the question under advisement.

19 SECTION 71. Assembly rule 70 (4) is amended to read:

20 ASSEMBLY RULE 70 (4) A motion to fix the time for convening the next daily
21 session may be amended by altering the time. The motion is debatable and in order 22 only when ~~there is~~ no other main question is before the assembly.

23 SECTION 72. Assembly rule 71 is amended to read:

24 ASSEMBLY RULE 71. Ending debate. (1) When a proposal is under 25 consideration, any member who obtains the floor may move that debate on the

1 proposal be ended. Any such motion shall be seconded by at least 15 members, shall 2 ~~may~~ not be debated, and shall be ~~is~~ decided by a roll call vote.

3 (2) If the motion prevails, debate on the proposal ~~shall be ended~~ ends and all 4 pending and subsequently entered motions concerning the proposal ~~shall be~~ are 5 decided without debate in the order prescribed by ~~these~~ the assembly rules.

6 SECTION 73. Assembly rule 72 is amended to read:

7 ASSEMBLY RULE 72. Postponing; rejecting; referring. When a motion to 8 postpone to a day or time certain, to postpone indefinitely, to reject, to nonconcur, or 9 to refer to a specific standing or special committee has failed, it may not be allowed 10 again on the same day at the same stage in the consideration of that proposal.

11 SECTION 74. Assembly rule 73 (intro.), (2) (b) and (3) to (10) are amended to 12 read:

13 ASSEMBLY RULE 73. Reconsidering. (intro.) A motion to reconsider an 14 assembly decision on any question may only be made by a member who voted with 15 or was paired with the side ~~which~~ that prevailed on that question, except that in the 16 case of a tie vote or voice vote any member may move reconsideration.

17 (2) (b) For any decision other than passage, adoption, concurrence, indefinite 18 postponement, rejection, or nonconcurrence, the motion for reconsideration shall be 19 considered when the proposal is next regularly scheduled for consideration.

20 (3) (a) A motion for reconsideration of the vote by which a proposal is passed, 21 adopted, concurred in, indefinitely postponed, rejected, or nonconcurred in may be 22 entered: 1) before the relating clause of the next proposal is read by the clerk, the next 23 order of business is announced by the presiding officer, or other business is begun;
24 or 2) on the 13th order of business on the next roll call day. Any motion to reconsider 25 such final action shall be taken up immediately if the roll call day on which it is

1 entered is already the 2nd or a later actual day following the vote constituting final 2 action on the proposal, but consideration of any other motion for reconsideration of 3 such final action, entered on the roll call day following the day on which the final 4 action was taken, shall be laid over and placed on the calendar for the first legislative 5 day which ~~that~~ occurs at least 2 calendar days after the decision was made.

6 (b) On the final legislative day of the last ~~scheduled~~ general-business 7 floorperiod preceding the veto review session in any legislative biennium, any 8 pending motion to reconsider shall be taken up on the 7th order of business on that 9 day. Any motion to reconsider entered subsequently may be taken up at any time on 10 such ~~that~~ day by majority vote of a majority of the members present and voting.

11 (4) (a) A motion to reconsider the decision on an amendment shall be placed on 12 the same calendar as the motion to reconsider the final 2nd reading stage decision 13 on the proposal to which the amendment relates, regardless of when made. The 14 failure of any calendar that has been provided to members to show ~~any such~~ a motion
15 to reconsider a decision on an amendment shall does not prevent the consideration 16 of such ~~the~~ motion under the proper order of business on that calendar day.

17 (b) Reconsideration of decisions on amendments ~~shall follow~~ follows the 18 sequence in rule 55 for consideration of amendments.

19 (c) ~~No~~ A motion to reconsider a decision on any amendment may not be 20 considered unless the final decision on the proposal at the end of the 2nd reading 21 stage is reconsidered, returning the proposal to the amendable stage. If the 22 engrossed proposal consists of a substitute amendment, with or without adopted
23 amendments, both the vote to engross and the vote to adopt the substitute
24 amendment must be reconsidered ~~in order~~ to return the proposal to the amendable 25 stage.

1 (5) The decision on any motion to reconsider is final and may not be
2 reconsidered, but motions to reconsider subsequent decisions on the same proposal,
3 at the same or a later stage, ~~shall be~~ are in order if otherwise permitted under this 4 rule.

5 (6) Once a motion to reconsider ~~has been~~ is entered, it may ~~only~~ be withdrawn
6 only by the member who made the motion and only before the expiration of the time
7 period for making the motion unless thereafter authorized by the assembly.

8 (7) A motion to reconsider is only debatable when the question to which it
9 relates is debatable. In any such debate, ~~no~~ a member may not speak more than once 10 ~~nor~~ or for more than 3 minutes.

11 (8) The adoption by both houses of a joint resolution returning a proposal to the 12 assembly for further action returns the proposal to the stage specified in the 13 resolution. The adoption of a motion for reconsideration ~~shall~~ is not be required to 14 reach that stage.

15 (9) When a motion to reconsider has been entered ~~in order~~ to return a proposal 16 to the amendable stage, the maker of the motion may offer one new amendment to 17 that proposal ~~for introduction and provision, which shall be provided~~ to the members.

18 (10) The entering of a motion for reconsideration does not impair the 19 effectiveness of any adopted resolution relating to the officers, members, procedures, 20 or organization of the assembly.

21 SECTION 75. Assembly rule 74 (intro.), (1) and (2) are amended to read:

22 ASSEMBLY RULE 74. Tabling; taking from table. (intro.) A motion to table
23 disposes of a matter temporarily. The committee on rules may refer any tabled
24 matter to an appropriate calendar. Unless such the referral has been made, a tabled 25 matter may be taken from the table at any time by order of the assembly.

1 (1) A motion to table a matter is ~~only~~ in order only if the matter is currently 2 before the assembly.

3 (2) A motion to table or to take from the table may not be amended, but may 4 be debated for not exceeding 10 minutes. In debating a motion to table or to take from 5 the table, ~~no~~ a member may not speak for more than 2 minutes.

6 SECTION 76. Assembly rule 76 (1), (3), (4) and (6) to (8) are amended to read:

7 ASSEMBLY RULE 76 (1) Unless otherwise required by the state constitution, by 8 law, or by legislative rule, all questions ~~shall be~~ are decided by a majority of a quorum.

9 (3) A roll call vote shall be taken when the recording of the “ayes” and “noes”
10 is required by the state constitution, by law, or by legislative rule, when ~~deemed~~ 11 desirable ordered by the presiding officer, or when requested by a member with the 12 support of 15 seconds.

13 (4) When the voting machine is available, the machine ~~shall~~ may be used to 14 record the “ayes” and “noes.” When the voting machine is not available, the chief 15 clerk shall call and tally the roll. On all roll call votes, the record produced by the 16 voting machine or the chief clerk’s tally ~~shall be~~ is official and final.

17 (6) During a roll call vote, any member may raise the point of order that a 18 member appears to be absent from the chamber but is shown as voting according to 19 the roll call display boards. If the presiding officer rules the point of order “well 20 taken”, the vote of the absent member ~~shall~~ may not be recorded.

21 (7) Any interruption of a roll call vote, from the time the voting machine is 22 opened or the calling commenced to the announcement of the official totals by the 23 presiding officer, ~~shall be~~ is out of order except to raise a point of order concerning 24 the taking of the vote.

1 (8) After the voting machine is closed or the calling completed, a member's 2 request to be recorded as voting or as voting contrary to the way shown in the official
3 record shall be shown in the journal, but ~~shall~~ does not alter the outcome of the roll 4 call vote.

5 SECTION 77. Assembly rule 79 (1) and (4) are amended to read:

6 ASSEMBLY RULE 79 (1) ~~No~~ A pair may not be recognized unless one or both of the 7 parties thereto are absent with leave.

8 (4) A pair ~~shall~~ is not be counted as part of the official result of a vote, but shall 9 be recorded.

10 SECTION 78. Assembly rule 80 (2), (4), (5) (b) and (6) are amended to read:

11 ASSEMBLY RULE 80 (2) If it is the opinion of the ~~chair~~ presiding officer that the 12 proposed division of a simple amendment is unduly complex or the purpose of the 13 division can be more clearly or simply accomplished by amendment, or that a call for 14 a division is being used as a substitute for a series of amendments, the question shall 15 may not be divided.

16 (4) Bills, joint resolutions, resolutions, and substitute amendments, and 17 amendments received from the senate for assembly concurrence, may not be divided.
18 A bill vetoed in its entirety by the governor may not be divided. A report of a 19 committee of conference may not be divided.

20 (5) (b) It is the opinion of the ~~chair~~ presiding officer that the item involves 21 distinct and independent propositions capable of division and that the division will 22 not be unduly complex.

23 (6) When a bill has been vetoed in part the committee on rules may, by a 24 resolution offered under rule 33, propose to schedule a specific part as a special order.
25 When appropriate, the resolution may divide the part into one or more independent

1 propositions and dependent propositions. The proposed division must include at 2 least one separate proposition ~~which~~ that, if passed notwithstanding the objections
3 of the governor, will result in a complete and workable law regardless of the action
4 taken on any other part of the original part. The ~~chair~~ presiding officer shall first 5 put the question on ~~any such~~ the independent proposition. The question on any 6 proposition dependent thereon shall may be put only if the independent proposition
7 has been passed notwithstanding the objections of the governor.

8 SECTION 79. Assembly rule 81 is amended to read:

9 ASSEMBLY RULE 81. Tie loses question. Whenever the assembly casts a tie
10 vote, the question ~~shall be~~ is lost.

11 SECTION 80. Assembly rule 82 is amended to read:

12 ASSEMBLY RULE 82. Interruptions of clerk during roll call. ~~No~~ A person
13 ~~shall~~ may not visit or remain at the clerk's desk while a roll call vote or tabulation 14 is in progress.

15 SECTION 81. Assembly rule 83 (2) and (4) are amended to read:

16 ASSEMBLY RULE 83 (2) A call of the assembly is in order at any time, including 17 while a motion to adjourn is pending, but not when voting is in progress, or when a 18 request for a leave of absence or a motion to lift a call is pending.

19 (4) On a call of the assembly being requested, the presiding officer shall state
20 substantially: "It requires 15 members to second a call of the assembly; those in favor 21 of the call will rise."– If 15 members rise, the call is ordered.

22 SECTION 82. Assembly rule 84 is amended to read:

23 ASSEMBLY RULE 84. Members to remain in chamber when under call.
24 When a call of the assembly is ordered, the sergeant at arms shall close the doors and 25 ~~no member~~ members may not leave the assembly chamber.

1 SECTION 83. Assembly rule 86 (1), (3) and (4) are amended to read:

2 ASSEMBLY RULE 86 (1) Business may be transacted as if there were no call except 3 that ~~no~~ further action may not be taken on the specific question under consideration
4 when the call was ordered.

5 (3) All motions relating to the call, adjournment, or any recess shall be decided 6 by a roll call vote.

7 (4) The sergeant at arms may at any time report on the progress or completion
8 of the call ~~and any.~~ Any such report shall be entered in the journal.

9 SECTION 84. Assembly rule 88 is amended to read:

10 ASSEMBLY RULE 88. Successive calls on same question. Successive calls on 11 the same question are not in order unless significant business, a recess, or an 12 adjournment has intervened.

13 SECTION 85. Assembly rule 89 (1) and (2) are amended to read:

14 ASSEMBLY RULE 89 (1) Any proposed change of assembly rules shall be 15 ~~introduced~~ offered as a resolution.

16 (2) Any resolution affecting assembly rules shall be referred by the speaker or 17 presiding officer to the calendar for the 2nd legislative day ~~following introduction~~
18 after it is offered, or to a committee. A resolution providing for the adoption of 19 assembly rules at the commencement of a legislative biennium may be taken up 20 immediately ~~upon its introduction~~ after it is offered if the resolution has been 21 provided to the assembly members-elect of the new legislature at least one week
22 ~~prior to~~ before the convening of the session.

23 SECTION 86. Assembly rule 90 (3) and (5) are amended to read:

1 ASSEMBLY RULE 90 (3) When a unanimous consent request is granted or a 2 motion to suspend the rules prevails, only those rules are suspended ~~which~~ that 3 otherwise would prevent the accomplishment of the stated purpose.

4 (5) Unanimous consent requests and motions to suspend the rules ~~shall~~ are not 5 be permitted for frivolous, indecorous, or clearly dilatory purposes.

6 SECTION 87. Assembly rule 91 is amended to read:

7 ASSEMBLY RULE 91. Authority and interpretation of the rules. The power 8 to make rules governing its procedure is a constitutional power of each house of the 9 legislature. The rules of the assembly, together with the joint rules, ~~shall~~ govern the 10 assembly's parliamentary practice.

11 (1) In the absence of a pertinent assembly or joint rule, questions of 12 parliamentary procedure ~~shall be~~ are decided according to applicable rules of 13 parliamentary practice in Jefferson's manual which are not inconsistent with 14 constitutional or statutory provisions relating to the functioning of the legislature.

15 (2) Established precedents of both houses, long-established custom, opinions 16 of the attorney general interpreting rules and precedents, and other leading 17 parliamentary authorities such as Mason's manual may be used in the 18 interpretation of both these the assembly rules and the rules in Jefferson's manual.

19 SECTION 88. Assembly rule 92 is amended to read:

20 ASSEMBLY RULE 92. Continuity of assembly rules. The rules of the assembly
21 ~~shall~~ remain in effect until amended or rescinded by the assembly. At the beginning 22 of a new biennial session, the rules of the assembly in effect at the conclusion of the 23 preceding regular session ~~shall~~ remain in force until superseded by assembly rules 24 adopted in the new session of the legislature.

25 SECTION 89. Assembly rule 93 is amended to read:

1 ASSEMBLY RULE 93. Special, extended, or extraordinary sessions. Unless 2 otherwise provided by the assembly for a specific special, extended, or extraordinary 3 session, the rules of the assembly adopted for the regular session shall, subject to the 4 following modifications, apply to each special session called by the governor and to 5 each extended or extraordinary session called by the assembly and senate
6 ~~organization~~ committees on organization or called by a joint resolution approved
7 adopted by both houses one house and concurred in by the other house:

9 assembly unless it is germane to the session call or pertains to the organization of 10 the legislature.

11 (2) Proposals may be offered ~~for introduction~~ or introduced only by the 12 assembly committees on finance, organization, or rules, or by the joint committees 13 on employment relations, finance, or organization.

14 (3) ~~No~~ A notice of hearings before committees ~~shall be~~ is not required other than 15 posting on the legislative bulletin boards, and ~~no~~ a schedule of committee activities 16 need not be published.

17 (4) ~~All measures~~ proposals referred to a calendar may be taken up immediately.
18 A calendar need not be provided.

19 (5) ~~No~~ A motion to postpone a proposal to a day or time certain shall may not 20 be allowed.

21 (6) All motions to reconsider shall be taken up immediately unless a different 22 time is set by majority vote of a majority of the members present and voting for a 23 specific motion to reconsider.

1 (7) All motions to advance a proposal to its 3rd reading, and all motions to 2 message a proposal to the other house may be adopted by a majority of the members
3 present and voting.

4 SECTION 90. Assembly rule 94 (title), (1) and (3) are amended to read:

5 ASSEMBLY RULE 94. (title) Content, format, and style of rules and manual.

6 (1) The assembly manual shall be composed of pamphlets containing ~~these and the~~ 7 assembly rules, the joint rules, the session schedule, the state constitution, 8 alphabetical indexes, and other information approved by the speaker or the 9 committee on assembly organization. Whenever directed to do so by the speaker or 10 the committee on assembly organization, the chief clerk shall recompile and 11 republish any pamphlet part. In recompileing the assembly manual or any pamphlet 12 thereof, the chief clerk shall make spelling and other minor corrections and shall 13 consult with the legislative reference bureau to make any references to provisions 14 of the constitution, statutes, joint rules, or assembly rules conform to the numbers 15 then assigned to such the provisions.

16 (3) (a) Within one week ~~from~~ after the adoption of any resolution significantly 17 changing the assembly rules, the chief clerk shall direct the reproduction of a new 18 pamphlet incorporating the entire text of ~~these~~ the assembly rules as affected by that 19 the resolution unless, in the judgment of the speaker, additional rule changes may 20 soon be agreed to by the members. Each pamphlet edition shall contain a revised 21 table of contents and index prepared by the legislative reference bureau.

22 (b) The chief clerk shall supervise the production of the book of ~~these~~ the 23 assembly rules for insertion into the assembly manual.

24 (c) As directed by the chief clerk, any resolution amending ~~these~~ the assembly
25 rules may be engrossed and may be duplicated for distribution.

3 commendations, congratulations, and condolences of persons or organizations or to 4 give recognition to unusual and important events, except that the use of citations
5 ~~shall~~ may not be abused. The committee on assembly organization may more 6 specifically interpret this rule subsection.

7 (5) (intro.) All citations on behalf of the assembly shall be ~~typed~~ prepared by 8 ~~employees~~ employees assigned to the chief clerk, shall be prepared on an artistic form
9 approved by the committee on assembly organization, shall be suitable for framing,
10 and shall be in substantially the following form:

11 SECTION 95. Assembly rule 98 is created to read:

12 Assembly Rule 98. Campaign committee activity. (1) A member may not 13 schedule, hold, attend, or contribute money for or at a fund-raising social event in 14 Dane County during a floorperiod of the legislature or during a special or 15 extraordinary session if the event is for a member; is sponsored by the member's 16 personal campaign committee, as defined in section 11.01 of the statutes; or is 17 sponsored by a legislative campaign committee, as defined in section 11.01 of the 18 statutes.

19 (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a fund-raising social event of a legislative 20 campaign committee held during the period between the first day authorized for 21 filing nomination papers for any special election to the assembly and the date of the 22 special election.

23 (3) Subsection (1) does not apply to a fund-raising social event of a current 24 member of the assembly or his or her personal campaign committee held during the 25 period between the first day authorized for filing nomination papers for any office for

1 which the current member of the assembly is a candidate and the date of the election
2 for that office, if the event is held within the boundaries of the jurisdiction or district
3 served by the office for which the current member of the assembly is a candidate.

4 (4) Subsection (1) does not apply to a fund-raising social event of a current
5 member of the assembly or his or her personal campaign committee held during the 6 period between the first day authorized for filing nomination papers for any office, 7 other than representative to the assembly, for which the current member of the 8 assembly is a candidate and the date of the election for that other office.

9 (5) Subsection (1) does not apply to a fund-raising social event of a current
10 member of the assembly who represents a district that contains part of Dane County, 11 or his or her personal campaign committee, if:

12 (a) The event is held within the boundaries of the jurisdiction or district
13 represented by the current member of the assembly;

14 (b) The event is held during a special or extraordinary session; and

15 (c) The invitations to attend the event are sent before the special or 16 extraordinary session is called.

17 (END)
