2001 ASSEMBLY RESOLUTION

A large, handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Jan 16', is written across the upper right portion of the page.

1 Relating to: requiring public hearings on proposals.

---

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Currently under the assembly rules, a committee chairperson decides whether and when to schedule a public hearing on a proposal. This resolution requires that all proposals be given a public hearing within 60 days after it is referred or rereferred to the committee. However, proposals considered in special or extraordinary session do not require a hearing.

The resolution also provides that the hearing may not be held until 7 working days after copies of any of the legislation scheduled for hearing are available to the public.
