May 8, 2001 – Introduced by Representative TOWNSEND.

1 Relating to: the life, military service, and sacrifice of Marc Ian Nieto, of Fond du 2 Lac, Wisconsin.

3 Whereas, Marc Ian Nieto is the son of Mrs. Sharon Priepke, of the state of 4 Wisconsin, and graduated from Goodrich High School, Fond du Lac, Wisconsin, in 5 1994; and

6 Whereas, Marc Nieto joined the United States Navy as a Seaman Recruit, was 7 promoted 5 times, and ultimately earned the title of Petty Officer 2nd Class, 8 Engineman, serving on the USS Cole (DDG 67); and

9 Whereas, Marc Nieto served honorably as a U.S. Navy sailor aboard the USS 10 Cole (DDG 67), and was 2 weeks short of finishing his 6-year Navy tour of duty, when 11 suicidal terrorists attacked and bombed out the side of the USS Cole, on October 12, 12 2000, in Yemen; and

13 Whereas, Marc Nieto will be remembered not only for his outstanding military 14 service, but also for his concern for others, his integrity, his sense of humor, and his 15 generosity to friends and family; now, therefore, be it
