PUBLIC INSTRUCTION

Home Instruction Program for Preschool Youngsters

Motion:

Move to require DPI to give priority to funding the home instruction program for preschool youngsters, to the extent permitted under federal law, when the Department next awards subgrants of federal funding under the William F. Goodling Even Start Family Literacy program, in order to allocate at least $250,000 to the home instruction program.

---

Note:

The home instruction program for preschool youngsters is a research-based program to promote parental involvement, family literacy and to prepare children to enter school. The William F. Goodling Even Start Family Literacy program is reauthorized under the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001, the reauthorization of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 (Title I, Part B, Subpart 3, sections 1231 thru 1242). Even Start awards competitive grants for integrated programs providing adult literacy, early childhood education and parenting education services to low-income families with children ages birth to seven. DPI must form a consortium of a number of literacy partners in the state, including school districts, public and private nonprofit organizations and institutions of higher education, and provide a matching grant in order to receive funding. The home instruction program for preschool youngsters is specifically listed under the federal law as a nonprofit organization eligible to receive funding under Even Start.
