Amendment:

Act or Bill:

Summary: Students Pay full costs of course retakes. Presently state pays 60% for all retakes for in-state students.

Fiscal Impact: generates $5 million GPR savings (source: UW System)

if activated.

failure only +

Working Group Recommendation: Modify the proposal to require the UW-System to impose a 100% tuition surcharge per credit for courses that are retaken because of failure on the first attempt. Specify that this surcharge would not apply to National Guard members who fail a course due to their Guard duties. Although this proposal may generate additional tuition revenues for the UW-System, there would be no GPR savings from it.

Under current law (2001 Wisconsin Act 22), the board of regents ~~is~~ must reimburse a student or offer the student an incomplete in the course if the student is called into active duty in the National Guard. Therefore, this amendment does not exempt National Guard members from the surcharge because they are protected under current law.
