Subject Licenses to carry concealed weapons

Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

This bill creates a procedure by which a person may apply to the county sheriff for a license to carry a concealed weapon. A person who is denied the license may appeal the decision to the circuit court for review by a judge without a jury. The clerk of court is required to notify the sheriff when certain proceedings are filed in the circuit court that would require suspension or revocation of the license. Penalties are created for new crimes relating to the application for and misuse of the permit as well as new crimes involving failure to report certain circumstances to the proper authorities in a timely manner.

It is expected that additional litigation for the circuit courts will occur if this bill is enacted. Additional judge, court reporter and court staff time will be needed to handle the new criminal violations as well as the reviews for denial of licenses. The exact increase is impossible to predict with the data available. Additional clerk time will be needed in order to comply with the notice requirement to the sheriff when certain charges are filed against a person who has a license. It is unclear if the clerk will always know when a defendant has a license to carry a concealed weapon. Revenues from the fines collected for violations is also impossible to predict with the data available.
