By Request Sheet

1 To create section 26 of article I of the constitution; relating to: the right to fish,
2 hunt, trap, and take game (first consideration).

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This proposed constitutional amendment, proposed to the 2001 legislature on first consideration, provides that the people have the right to fish, hunt, trap, and take game subject only to reasonable restrictions as prescribed by law.

A constitutional amendment requires adoption by 2 successive legislatures, and ratification by the people, before it can become effective.

Resolved by the senate, the assembly concurring, That:

SECTION 1. Section 26 of article I of the constitution is created to read:

[Article I] Section 26. The people have the right to fish, hunt, trap, and take game subject only to reasonable restrictions as prescribed by law.

SECTION 2. Numbering of new provision. The new section 26 of article I of the constitution created in this joint resolution shall be designated by the next higher open whole section number in that article if, before the ratification by the people of the amendment proposed in this joint resolution, any other ratified amendment has

1 created a section 26 of article I of the constitution of this state. If one or more joint
2 resolutions create a section 26 of article I simultaneously with the ratification by the 3 people of the amendment proposed in this joint resolution, the sections created shall 4 be numbered and placed in a sequence so that the sections created by the joint
5 resolution having the lowest enrolled joint resolution number have the numbers
6 designated in that joint resolution and the sections created by the other joint
7 resolutions have numbers that are in the same ascending order as are the numbers
8 of the enrolled joint resolutions creating the sections.

9 Be it further resolved, That this proposed amendment be referred to the 10 legislature to be chosen at the next general election and that it be published for 3
11 months previous to the time of holding such election.
