1 AN ACT ^{DON'T GEN. CAT} relating to: the budget.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

GAMBLING

Currently, the governor is authorized to enter into Indian gaming compacts with federally recognized American Indian tribes in this state. The gaming compacts are regulated by the federal Indian Gaming Regulatory Act. Under the gaming compacts, tribes are permitted to engage in certain forms of gambling activities on tribal lands. Pursuant to the compacts, the state receives moneys from the tribes and from vendors who contract with the tribes (Indian gaming receipts). The Indian gaming receipts are credited to an Indian gaming program revenue appropriation and are transferred annually to a variety of appropriation accounts to fund a variety of programs.

This bill requires that, on June 30 annually, the unencumbered balances of the annual appropriations to which Indian gaming receipts are transferred, except the unencumbered balance of an appropriation to DHFS which appropriates moneys received by DHFS from other state agencies for aids to individuals and organizations, revert to the Indian gaming program revenue appropriation. In the case of the biennial and continuing appropriations to which Indian gaming receipts are transferred, on June 30 of each odd-numbered year any unencumbered balance reverts to the Indian gaming program revenue appropriation.

→ WITH bill also transfers $2,500,000 of Indian gaming receipts to the environmental fund.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

GAMBLING

Currently, the governor is authorized to enter into Indian gaming compacts with federally recognized American Indian tribes in this state. The gaming compacts are regulated by the federal Indian Gaming Regulatory Act. Under the gaming compacts, tribes are permitted to engage in certain forms of gambling activities on tribal lands. Pursuant to the compacts, the state receives moneys from the tribes and from vendors who contract with the tribes (Indian gaming receipts). The Indian gaming receipts are credited to an Indian gaming program revenue appropriation and are transferred annually to a variety of appropriation accounts to fund a variety of programs.

This bill requires that, on June 30 annually, the unencumbered balances of the annual appropriations to which Indian gaming receipts are transferred, except the unencumbered balance of an appropriation to DHFS which appropriates moneys received by DHFS from other state agencies for aids to individuals and organizations, revert to the Indian gaming program revenue appropriation. In the case of the biennial and continuing appropriations to which Indian gaming receipts are transferred, on June 30 of each odd-numbered year any unencumbered balance reverts to the Indian gaming program revenue appropriation.

The bill also transfers $2,500,000 of Indian gaming receipts to the environmental fund.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

AN ACT ...; relating to: the budget.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

GAMBLING

Currently, the governor is authorized to enter into Indian gaming compacts with federally recognized American Indian tribes in this state. The gaming compacts are regulated by the federal Indian Gaming Regulatory Act. Under the gaming compacts, tribes are permitted to engage in certain forms of gambling activities on tribal lands. Pursuant to the compacts, the state receives moneys from the tribes and from vendors who contract with the tribes (Indian gaming receipts). The Indian gaming receipts are credited to an Indian gaming program revenue appropriation and are transferred annually to a variety of appropriation accounts to fund a variety of programs.

This bill requires that, on June 30 annually, the unencumbered balances of the annual appropriations to which Indian gaming receipts are transferred, except the unencumbered balance of an appropriation to DHFS which appropriates moneys received by DHFS from other state agencies for aids to individuals and organizations, revert to the Indian gaming program revenue appropriation. In the case of the biennial and continuing appropriations to which Indian gaming receipts are transferred, on June 30 of each odd-numbered year any unencumbered balance reverts to the Indian gaming program revenue appropriation.

The bill also transfers $2,500,000 of Indian gaming receipts to the environmental fund.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

DOA:.....Holden – Indian gaming appropriation

FOR 2001-03 BUDGET — NOT READY FOR INTRODUCTION

1 AN ACT ...; relating to: the budget.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

GAMBLING

Currently, the governor is authorized to enter into Indian gaming compacts with federally recognized American Indian tribes in this state. The gaming compacts are regulated by the federal Indian Gaming Regulatory Act. Under the gaming compacts, tribes are permitted to engage in certain forms of gambling activities on tribal lands. Pursuant to the compacts, the state receives moneys from the tribes and from vendors who contract with the tribes (Indian gaming receipts). The Indian gaming receipts are credited to an Indian gaming program revenue appropriation and are transferred annually to a variety of appropriation accounts to fund a variety of programs.

This bill requires that, on June 30 annually, the unencumbered balances of the annual appropriations to which Indian gaming receipts are transferred, except the unencumbered balance of an appropriation to DHFS which appropriates moneys received by DHFS from other state agencies for aids to individuals and organizations, revert to the Indian gaming program revenue appropriation. In the case of the biennial and continuing appropriations to which Indian gaming receipts are transferred, on June 30 of each odd-numbered year any unencumbered balance reverts to the Indian gaming program revenue appropriation.

The bill also transfers $2,500,000 of Indian gaming receipts to the environmental fund.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
