FOR 2001-03 BUDGET — NOT READY FOR INTRODUCTION

1 AN ACT ...; relating to: the budget.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

EDUCATION

OTHER EDUCATIONAL AND CULTURAL AGENCIES

Under current law, the educational communications board (ECB) is responsible for overseeing and coordinating the provision of public broadcasting to this state. In addition, the board of regents of the UW System, as licensee, must manage, operate, and maintain a radio and television station and provide the ECB part-time use of equipment and space necessary for the operations of the state educational radio and television networks.

This bill creates a public broadcasting transitional board (transitional board) that is responsible for creating a nonstock, nonprofit educational broadcasting corporation (corporation). The transitional board has 20 members: the secretary of administration; the UW System president; the state superintendent of public instruction; the technical college system director; the president of the Wisconsin Association of Independent Colleges and Universities; one member of each house of the legislature from the political party with the most members in each house; two members appointed by the governor who belong to the Wisconsin Public Radio Association; one member appointed by the governor who belongs to a "friends group" organized to raise funds for television station WHA; one member appointed by the governor who resides in this state outside the WHA viewing area; one member appointed by the governor who is a representative of public elementary and secondary school administrators; and eight members appointed by the governor who are employed in the private sector.

The bill directs the transitional board to draft and file articles of incorporation for a nonstock, nonprofit educational broadcasting corporation and to take all actions necessary to exempt the corporation from taxation under the Internal Revenue Code. In addition, the transitional board must provide in the articles of incorporation that the members of the transitional board are the initial directors of the corporate board. Also, the transitional board must prepare an application for the corporate board to submit to the federal communications commission (FCC) to transfer all broadcasting licenses held by the ECB and the board of regents to the corporation, except licenses held by the board of regents for student radio; draft bylaws for adoption by the corporate board; negotiate an agreement with the Wisconsin Public Radio Association to transfer funds raised by the Wisconsin Public Radio Association to the corporation; and negotiate an agreement with each friends group to transfer funds raised by the friends group to the corporation.

If the FCC approves the transfer of all broadcasting licenses held by the ECB to the corporation, the ECB is eliminated on the effective date of the transfer. If the FCC approves the transfer of all broadcasting licenses held by the board of regents to the corporation, the corporation assumes the broadcasting activities of the board of regents.

The corporation is entitled to receive state aid for its operational expenses if the corporation, generally, maintains a state system of radio broadcasting for presenting educational, informational, and public service programs; maintains television channels for educational use; leases, purchases, or constructs radio and television facilities for joint use with state and local agencies; provides educational programming for elementary and secondary schools in this state; and enters into a contract with the board of regents for the services of the employees of the board of regents related to providing public broadcasting services.

The corporation is entitled to receive additional state aid for its operational expenses if the articles of incorporation state that the purpose of the corporation is to provide public broadcasting to this state and that, if the corporation dissolves or discontinues public broadcasting to this state, the corporation must, in good faith, take all reasonable measures to transfer or assign the corporation's assets, licenses, and rights to an entity whose purpose is to advance public broadcasting in this state. To receive state aid for its operational expenses, the corporation must also adopt the bylaws drafted by the transitional board; permit public access to its records to the same extent as required of a state agency; provide public notice of and permit public access to its meetings to the same extent as required of a state agency; provide the secretary of administration, the legislative audit bureau, and the legislative fiscal bureau access to all its records; fulfill any contract obligation of ECB related to providing public broadcasting, if the ECB broadcasting licenses are transferred to the corporation; and fulfill any contract obligation of the board of regents related to providing public broadcasting, if the broadcasting licenses of the board of regents are transferred to the corporation.

If the FCC approves the transfer of all broadcasting licenses held by the ECB to the corporation, ECB employees become DOA employees and those employees will provide broadcasting services to the corporation under a contract between DOA and the corporation. The contract must provide that the employees providing such services are supervised solely by the corporation. If the FCC approves the transfer of all broadcasting licenses held by the board of regents, the board of regents must enter into a contract with the corporation to provide the broadcasting services of the employees of the board of regents to the corporation. The contract must provide that the employees providing such services are supervised solely by the corporation.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
