June 27, 2001

You may wish to clarify several elements of this draft:

1. The instructions and the draft use the term "educational component" without explaining the meaning of the term. For example, it could be interpreted to mean "attended a school of education," or "took a course in education," or even "expressed an interest in education."
2. Nothing presents DPI from renaming the positions that currently use the title "consultant." If the positions are renamed, this amendment will have no effect.
