capita limit for municipalities at $450 and counties at $225 for payments in FY 2003, $650 for municipalities and $325 for counties for payments in FY 2004, $950 for municipalities and $475 for counties for payments in FY 2005 and $1,200 for municipalities and $600 for counties for payments in 2006.

In addition, the motion would establish a brownfield/fuel diversity incentive. Under the incentive, utility aid payments would further be increased for municipality's where a new power plant is built on the site of an existing or retired power plant or located on a brownfield.

Under the added incentive, if a new natural gas-fired power plant is built on the site of an existing or retired power plant—with a rated capacity of 50 MW—or located on a brownfield, aid for the host municipality and county would be increased by one mill (7 mills times the net book value of power plant for municipalities and 4 mills times the plant's value for the county).

If a new coal-fired plant is built on the site of an existing or retired power plant—with a rated capacity of 50 MW—or located on a brownfield, aid for the host municipality would be increased by two mills and for the county by one mill.

The brownfield/fuel diversity incentive payment would not be paid to municipalities and counties until the plant becomes operational, whereas under current law, aid is paid on the value of construction work in progress. Also, the incentive would not apply to substations or general structures.

In an effort to hold municipalities and counties with no power plants located within their boundaries harmless, the motion would increase the total distribution under the shared revenue program by an amount equal to the estimated increases in utility aid. Without the additional funding, the motion would cause less aid to be distributed under the aidable revenues component.

Also under this motion, if property is decommissioned, the payments are phased out over five years. (This part is taken from 2001 AB 136).
