Rep. Cullen:

This amendment restores to 2001 Senate Bill 9 the language of revised s. 409.625 (5) and (6), stats., relating to statutory damages for noncompliance with certain sections of the bill that were deleted from the original bill by senate substitute amendment 1. Current s. 409.404 (1) (d), stats., has a similar provision that applies only to the failure to file a termination statement.
