Subject:	RE: UC bill language

Hi Jeff,

I forgot to mention I think, that this new language should be used for a separate bill, rather than as an amendment to the UC bill. I hope this doesn't cause any problems. Please let me know if you have additional questions.

Thanks,

dk

Unemployment Insurance
Temporary Emergency Unemployment Compensation Program

The statute is created to read:

If the 107th Congress of the United States enacts a temporary emergency unemployment compensation program, the Department of Workforce Development shall promptly implement the program including the development of any necessary administrative rules.

If the 107th Congress of the United States fails to enact a temporary emergency unemployment compensation program by January 1, 2002, the Council on Unemployment Insurance shall make a recommendation to the Legislature concerning a Wisconsin temporary emergency unemployment compensation program by January 31, 2002.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION #.

Currently, the department of workforce development (DWD) administers the state unemployment insurance law, as well as the federal laws with which this state is required to comply in order to participate in the federal unemployment insurance program and to realize maximum advantage for this state from that participation. The council on unemployment insurance advises DWD and the legislature in carrying out the purposes of the law.

This bill provides that if the 107th Congress enacts a temporary emergency unemployment insurance program, DWD shall promptly implement the program and shall promptly promulgate any administrative rules that may be necessary to implement the program, to the extent permitted by state law. The bill also provides that if the 107th Congress fails to enact a temporary unemployment insurance program by January 1, 2002, the council on unemployment insurance shall make a recommendation to the legislature concerning a Wisconsin temporary emergency unemployment insurance program by January 31, 2002.
