Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Current law established a uniform interstate compact for the supervision of out-of-state parolees that includes provisions allowing persons convicted of a crime in this state and placed on probation, parole, or extended supervision to reside in another state that has entered into the uniform interstate compact. Current law allows offenders from a state that is a party to the compact to reside in this state. Under current law, the receiving state assumes the duties of visitation and supervision of the offender. Current law allows officers of the sending state to enter the receiving state, apprehend the offender, and return him or her to the sending state without obtaining extradition rights over the person. Under current law, the state where the offender is residing may not object to the retaking unless the offender has a charge pending in that state or is suspected of committing a crime in that state. Current law allows the promulgation of rules necessary to carry out the functions of the interstate compact. Current law also allows a person who is convicted of a crime in this state and placed on probation, parole, or extended supervision to reside in another state that is not a party to the compact. The authorities of the other state must agree to assume the duties of visitation and supervision over the person, and the person must sign an agreement to waive any extradition rights if this state decides to retake the person.

ASSEMBLY BILL 481

This bill creates a new interstate compact for adult offenders that becomes effective when 35 states enact the compact. Under the compact:

1. There is created a 5-member interstate adult offender supervision board, attached to the department of corrections, whose members are appointed for 4-year terms by the governor. The board appoints a person to be a member of the interstate commission. The governor also appoints a compact administrator who is responsible for the state's administration of the compact.

2. There is an interstate commission composed of a commissioner from each of the compact states. Each compacting state has one vote on the commission. The commission supervises and oversees the interstate movement of offenders who are subject to the commission by establishing uniform procedures to manage that movement. The commission may establish offices; contract for services; hire staff; accept grants; lease, purchase, and sell property; make expenditures; levy assessments against compacting states for its operations; sue and be sued; and report annually to the compacting states.

3. The officers and employees of the commission are immune from liability for any damages resulting from an act or omission that occurred within the scope of the interstate commission employment, duties, or responsibilities. The commission is required to defend an officer or employee who is sued in a civil action related to an act or omission that occurred within the scope of the interstate commission employment, duties, or responsibilities.

4. The commission may adopt rules that are binding on the compact states. A majority of the legislatures of the compacting states may reject a rule. If that is done, the rule has no effect in any of the compacting states.

5. A state may withdraw from the compact by enacting a law repealing the statute that created the compact.

6. If a compact member state fails to perform any of the state's obligations under the compact, the commission may impose monetary penalties, provide remedial training to state staff, or suspend or terminate the state's membership in the compact.

7. The commission may bring legal action in federal court against a compact state to enforce compliance with the provisions of the compact, including the payment of assessments and liabilities owed under the compact.

8. All lawful actions of the interstate commission, including all rules promulgated by the commission and agreements between the commission and the states, are binding on the compact states, except that if a provision of the compact exceeds a limit imposed by a state constitution that provision is ineffective.

The bill requires a person who is bringing an action that may affect the powers, responsibilities, or actions of the interstate commission to deliver or mail a copy of the complaint in that action to the interstate commission.

18 SECTION 16. 304.16 of the statutes is created to read:

19 304.16 Interstate compact for adult offender supervision. (1) ARTICLE
20 I—PURPOSE. (a) The compacting states to this interstate compact recognize that each 21 state is responsible for the supervision, in the community, of adult offenders who are 22 authorized under the bylaws and rules of this compact to travel across state lines to 23 and from each compacting state in such a manner as to enable each compacting state 24 to track the location of offenders, transfer supervision authority in an orderly and 25 efficient manner, and, when necessary, return offenders to their original

1 jurisdictions. The compacting states recognize also that congress, by enacting the 2 Crime Control Act, 4 USC 112, has authorized and encouraged compacts for 3 cooperative efforts and mutual assistance in the prevention of crime. It is the 4 purpose of this compact and the interstate commission created under sub. (3), 5 through means of joint and cooperative action among the compacting states, to do all 6 of the following:

7 1. Provide the framework for the promotion of public safety and protect the 8 rights of victims through the control and regulation of the interstate movement of 9 offenders in the community.

10 2. Provide for the effective tracking, supervision, and rehabilitation of these 11 offenders by the sending and receiving states.

12 3. Equitably distribute the costs, benefits, and obligations of the compact 13 among the compacting states.

18 authorities, or corrections or other criminal justice agencies and that will 19 promulgate rules to achieve the purpose of this compact.

20 2. Ensure an opportunity for input and timely notice to victims and to 21 jurisdictions where defined offenders are authorized to travel or to relocate across 22 state lines.

23 3. Establish a system of uniform data collection, access to information on active 24 cases by authorized criminal justice officials, and regular reporting of compact

ASSEMBLY BILL 481

1 activities to heads of state councils or boards, state executive, judicial, and legislative 2 branches, and the attorney general.

3 4. Monitor compliance with rules governing interstate movement of offenders 4 and intervene to address and correct noncompliance.

5 5. Coordinate training and education regarding the regulation of interstate 6 movement of offenders for officials involved in such activity.

7 (c) The compacting states recognize that there is no right of any offender to live 8 in another state and that duly accredited officers of a sending state may at any time 9 enter a receiving state to apprehend and retake any offender under supervision 10 subject to the provisions of this compact and to bylaws adopted and rules 11 promulgated under this section. The activities conducted by the interstate 21 obligations.

22 8. Provide for the initial administration of the compact.

23 9. Establish standards and procedures for compliance and technical assistance 24 in carrying out the compact.

1 (b) Officers and staff. 1. The interstate commission shall, by a majority of the 2 members, elect from among its members a chairperson and a vice chairperson, each 3 of whom shall have such authority and duties as may be specified in the bylaws. The 4 chairperson or, in his or her absence or disability, the vice chairperson shall preside 5 at all meetings of the interstate commission. The officers so elected shall serve 7 the availability of budgeted funds, the officers shall be reimbursed for any actual and 8 necessary costs and expenses incurred by them in the performance of their duties 9 and responsibilities as officers of the interstate commission.

10 2. The interstate commission shall, through its executive committee, appoint 11 or retain an executive director for such period, upon such terms and conditions, and 21 for any claim for damage, loss of property, personal injury, or other civil liability 22 caused or arising out of any actual or alleged act, error, or omission that occurred 23 within the scope of interstate commission employment, duties, or responsibilities.

24 Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to protect any such person from suit

1 or liability for any damage, loss, injury, or liability caused by the intentional or willful 2 and wanton misconduct of any such person.

3 2. The interstate commission shall defend the commissioner of a compacting 4 state, his or her representatives or employees, and the interstate commission's 5 representatives or employees in any civil action seeking to impose liability and 6 arising out of any actual or alleged act, error, or omission that occurred within the 7 scope of interstate commission employment, duties, or responsibilities or that such 8 person had a reasonable basis for believing occurred within the scope of interstate 9 commission employment, duties, or responsibilities, unless the actual or alleged act, 10 error, or omission resulted from intentional wrongdoing on the part of such person.

11 3. The interstate commission shall indemnify and hold the commissioner of a 12 compacting state, his or her representatives or employees, and the interstate 13 commission's representatives or employees harmless in the amount of any 14 settlement or judgment obtained against such persons arising out of any actual or 15 alleged act, error, or omission that occurred within the scope of interstate 16 commission employment, duties, or responsibilities or that such person had a 17 reasonable basis for believing occurred within the scope of interstate commission

23 (b) Except as otherwise provided in this compact and unless a greater

ASSEMBLY BILL 481

1 commission, such act shall have been taken at a meeting of the interstate commission 2 and shall have received an affirmative vote of a majority of the members present.

3 (c) Each member of the interstate commission shall have the right and power 4 to cast a vote to which that compacting state is entitled and to participate in the 5 business and affairs of the interstate commission. A member shall vote in person on 6 behalf of the state and shall not delegate a vote to another member state. However, 7 a state board shall appoint another authorized representative, in the absence of the 8 commissioner from that state, to cast a vote on behalf of the member state at a 9 specified meeting. The bylaws may provide for members' participation in meetings 10 by telephone or other means of telecommunication or electronic communication. Any 11 voting conducted by telephone, or by other means of telecommunication or electronic 12 communication, shall be subject to the same quorum requirements of meetings at 13 which members are present in person.

14 (d) The interstate commission shall meet at least once during each year. The 15 chairperson of the interstate commission may call additional meetings at any time 16 and, upon the request of a majority of the members, shall call additional meetings.

17 (e) The interstate commission's bylaws shall establish conditions and 18 procedures under which the interstate commission shall make its information and 19 official records available to the public for inspection or copying. The interstate 20 commission may exempt from disclosure any information or official records to the 21 extent that they would adversely affect personal privacy rights or proprietary 22 interests. In promulgating such rules, the interstate commission may make 23 available to law enforcement agencies records and information otherwise exempt 24 from disclosure and may enter into agreements with law enforcement agencies to 1 receive or exchange information or records subject to nondisclosure and 2 confidentiality provisions.

3 (f) Public notice shall be given of all meetings and all meetings shall be open 4 to the public, except as set forth in the rules or as otherwise provided in the compact.
5 The interstate commission shall promulgate rules consistent with the principles 6 contained in the Government in Sunshine Act, 5 USC 552b. The interstate 7 commission and any of its committees may close a meeting to the public if it 8 determines by two-thirds vote that an open meeting would be likely to do any of the 9 following:

10 1. Relate solely to the interstate commission's internal personnel practices and 11 procedures.

12 2. Disclose matters specifically exempted from disclosure by statute.

13 3. Disclose a trade secret or commercial or financial information that is 14 privileged or confidential.

15 4. Involve accusing any person of a crime or formally censuring any person.

16 5. Disclose information of a personal nature if disclosure would constitute a 17 clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

18 6. Disclose investigatory records compiled for law enforcement purposes.

19 7. Disclose information contained in or related to examination, operating, or 20 condition reports prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of the interstate commission 21 with respect to a regulated entity for the purpose of regulation or supervision of such 22 entity.

23 8. Disclose information, the premature disclosure of which would significantly 24 endanger the life of a person or the stability of a regulated entity.

ASSEMBLY BILL 481

1 9. Specifically relate to the interstate commission's issuance of a subpoena or 2 its participation in a civil action or proceeding.

3 (g) For every meeting closed under par. (f), the interstate commission's chief 4 legal officer shall publicly certify that, in his or her opinion, the meeting may be 5 closed to the public and shall reference each relevant exemptive provision. The 6 interstate commission shall keep minutes that shall fully and clearly describe all 7 matters discussed in any meeting and shall provide a full and accurate summary of 8 any actions taken and the reasons therefor, including a description of each of the 9 views expressed on any item and the record of any roll call vote, reflected in the vote 10 of each member on the question. All documents considered in connection with any 11 action shall be identified in such minutes.

12 (h) The interstate commission shall collect standardized data concerning the 13 interstate movement of offenders as directed through its bylaws and rules that shall 14 specify the data to be collected, the means of collection, and data exchange and 15 reporting requirements.

16 (8) ARTICLE VIII – RULE-MAKING FUNCTIONS OF THE INTERSTATE COMMISSION. (a) 17 The interstate commission shall promulgate rules in order to effectively and 18 efficiently achieve the purposes of the compact, including transition rules governing 19 administration of the compact during the period after it becomes effective in which 20 it is being considered and enacted by other states.

21 (b) Rule making shall occur under the criteria set forth in this subsection and 22 the bylaws and rules adopted under this subsection. Such rule making shall 23 substantially conform to the principles of the federal Administrative Procedure Act, 24 5 USC 551 to 559, and the federal Advisory Committee Act, P.L. 92-463, reprinted

ASSEMBLY BILL 481

1 in 5 USC appendix. All rules and amendments shall become binding as of the date 2 specified in each rule or amendment.

3 (c) If a majority of the legislatures of the compacting states reject a rule, by 4 enactment of a statute or resolution in the same manner used to adopt the compact, 5 then such rule shall have no further force and effect in any compacting state.

6 (d) When promulgating a rule, the interstate commission shall do all of the 7 following:

8 1. Publish the proposed rule, stating with particularity the text of the rule that 9 is proposed and the reason for the proposed rule.

10 2. Allow persons to submit written data, facts, opinions, and arguments, which 11 information shall be publicly available.

12 3. Provide an opportunity for an informal hearing.

13 4. Promulgate a final rule and its effective date, if appropriate, based on the 14 rule-making record.

15 (e) Not later than 60 days after a rule is promulgated, any interested person 16 may file a petition in the U.S. district court for the District of Columbia or in the 17 federal district court for the district in which the interstate commission's principal 18 office is located for judicial review of such rule. If the court finds that the interstate 19 commission's action is not supported by substantial evidence, as construed under the 20 federal Administrative Procedure Act, 5 USC 551 to 559, in the rule-making record, 21 the court shall hold the rule unlawful and set it aside.

22 (f) Subjects to be addressed within 12 months after the first meeting must at 23 a minimum include all of the following:

24 1. Notice to victims and opportunity to be heard.

25 2. Offender registration and compliance.

- 2 4. Transfer procedures and forms.
- 3 5. Eligibility for transfer.
- 4 6. Collection of restitution and fees from offenders.
- 5 7. Data collection and reporting.
- 6 8. The level of supervision to be provided by the receiving state.
- 7 9. Transition rules governing the operation of the compact and the interstate
- 8 commission during all or part of the period between the effective date of the compact
- 9 and the date on which the last eligible state adopts the compact.
- 10 10. Mediation, arbitration, and dispute resolution.

11 (g) The existing rules governing the operation of the compact authorized under 12 s. 304.13 (1m) shall be null and void with respect to adult offenders traveling between 13 compacting states 12 months after the first meeting of the interstate commission.

14 (h) Upon determination by the interstate commission that an emergency 15 exists, it may promulgate an emergency rule, which shall become effective 16 immediately upon adoption, provided that the usual rule-making procedures 17 provided under this subsection shall be retroactively applied to the rule as soon as 18 reasonably possible and in no event later than 90 days after the effective date of the 19 rule.

20 (9) ARTICLE IX — OVERSIGHT, ENFORCEMENT, AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION BY THE 21 INTERSTATE COMMISSION. (a) Oversight. 1. The interstate commission shall oversee 22 the interstate movement of adult offenders in the compacting states and shall 23 monitor such activities being administered in noncompacting states that may 24 significantly affect compacting states.

ASSEMBLY BILL 481

1 2. The courts and executive agencies in each compacting state shall enforce this 2 compact and shall take all actions necessary and appropriate to effectuate the 3 compact's purposes and intent. In any judicial or administrative proceeding in a 4 compacting state pertaining to the subject matter of this compact that may affect the 5 powers, responsibilities, or actions of the interstate commission, the interstate 6 commission shall be entitled to receive all service of process in any such proceeding 7 and shall have standing to intervene in the proceeding for all purposes.

8 (b) Dispute resolution. 1. The compacting states shall report to the interstate 9 commission on issues or activities of concern to them and cooperate with and support 10 the interstate commission in the discharge of its duties and responsibilities.

12 issues that are subject to the compact or that may arise among compacting states and 13 noncompacting states.

14 3. The interstate commission shall enact a bylaw or promulgate a rule 15 providing for both mediation and binding dispute resolution for disputes among the 16 compacting states.

17 (c) Enforcement. The interstate commission, in the reasonable exercise of its 18 discretion, shall enforce the provisions of this compact using any or all means set 19 forth in sub. (12).

20 (10) ARTICLE X – FINANCE. (a) The interstate commission shall pay or provide 21 for the payment of the reasonable expenses of its establishment, organization, and 22 ongoing activities.

23 (b) The interstate commission shall levy on and collect an annual assessment 24 from each compacting state to cover the cost of the internal operations and activities 25 of the interstate commission and its staff, which must be in a total amount sufficient

ASSEMBLY BILL 481

1 to cover the interstate commission's annual budget as approved each year. The 2 aggregate annual assessment amount shall be allocated based upon a formula to be 3 determined by the interstate commission, taking into consideration the population 4 of the state and the volume of interstate movement of offenders in each compacting 5 state. The interstate commission shall promulgate a rule that is binding upon all 6 compacting states and that governs the assessment.

7 (c) The interstate commission may not incur any obligations of any kind prior 8 to securing the funds adequate to meet them, nor may the interstate commission 9 pledge the credit of any of the compacting states, except by and with the authority 10 of the compacting state.

11 (d) The interstate commission shall keep accurate accounts of all receipts and 12 disbursements. The receipts and disbursements of the interstate commission shall 13 be subject to the audit and accounting procedures established under its bylaws. All 14 receipts and disbursements of funds handled by the interstate commission shall be 15 audited yearly by a certified or licensed public accountant, and the report of the audit 16 shall be included in and become part of the annual report of the interstate 17 commission.

18 (11) ARTICLE XI – COMPACTING STATES, EFFECTIVE DATE, AND AMENDMENT. (a) 19 Any state is eligible to become a compacting state.

20 (b) The compact shall become effective and binding upon legislative enactment 21 of the compact into law by no less than 35 of the states. The initial effective date shall 22 be July 1, 2001, the effective date of this paragraph [revisor inserts date], or upon 23 enactment into law by the 35th jurisdiction, whichever is later. Thereafter it shall 24 become effective and binding, as to any other compacting state, upon enactment of 25 the compact into law by that state. The governors of nonmember states or their

ASSEMBLY BILL 481

1 designees will be invited to participate in interstate commission activities on a 2 nonvoting basis prior to adoption of the compact by all states.

3 (c) Amendments to the compact may be proposed by the interstate commission 4 for enactment by the compacting states. No amendment shall become effective and 5 binding upon the interstate commission and the compacting states unless and until 6 it is enacted into law by unanimous consent of the compacting states.

7 (12) ARTICLE XII — WITHDRAWAL, DEFAULT, TERMINATION, AND JUDICIAL 8 ENFORCEMENT. (a) Withdrawal. 1. Except as provided in subd. 2. and par. (b) 1. c.
9 and 3., once effective, the compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon 10 each and every compacting state.

11 2. a. A compacting state may withdraw from the compact by enacting a law 12 specifically repealing this section.

13 b. The effective date of withdrawal is the effective date of the repeal.

14 c. The withdrawing state shall immediately notify the chairperson of the 15 interstate commission in writing upon the introduction of legislation repealing this 16 compact in the withdrawing state. The interstate commission shall notify the other 17 compacting states of the withdrawing state's intent to withdraw within 60 days after 18 receiving the written notice.

19 d. The withdrawing state is responsible for all assessments, obligations, and 20 liabilities incurred through the effective date of withdrawal, including any 21 obligations the performance of which extend beyond the effective date of withdrawal.

22 e. Reinstatement following withdrawal of any compacting state shall occur 23 upon the withdrawing state reenacting the compact or upon such later date as 24 determined by the interstate commission.

1 (b) Default. 1. If the interstate commission determines that any compacting 2 state has at any time defaulted in the performance of any of its obligations or 3 responsibilities under this compact, under the bylaws, or under any duly 4 promulgated rules, the interstate commission may impose any or all of the following 5 penalties:

6 a. Forfeitures, fees, and costs in such amounts as are considered reasonable 7 and as fixed by the interstate commission.

8 b. Remedial training and technical assistance as directed by the interstate 9 commission.

10 c. Suspension or termination of membership in the compact. Suspension shall 11 be imposed only after all other reasonable means of securing compliance under the 12 bylaws and rules have been exhausted. Immediate notice of suspension shall be 13 given by the interstate commission to the governor, the chief justice of the supreme 14 court, the majority and minority leaders of the defaulting state's legislature, and the 15 state board.

16 2. The grounds for default include failure of a compacting state to perform 17 obligations or responsibilities imposed upon it by this compact, interstate 18 commission bylaws, or duly promulgated rules.

19 3. If it determines that a compacting state has defaulted, the interstate 20 commission shall immediately notify the defaulting state in writing of the penalty 21 imposed by the interstate commission on the defaulting state pending a cure of the 22 default. The interstate commission shall stipulate the conditions under which and 23 the time period within which the defaulting state must cure its default. If the 24 defaulting state fails to cure the default within the time period specified by the 25 interstate commission, in addition to any other penalties imposed herein, the 1 defaulting state may be terminated from the compact upon an affirmative vote of a 2 majority of the compacting states, and all rights, privileges, and benefits conferred 3 by this compact shall be terminated from the effective date of termination. Within 4 60 days after the effective date of termination of a defaulting state, the interstate 5 commission shall notify the governor, the chief justice of the supreme court, the 6 majority and minority leaders of the defaulting state’s legislature, and the state 7 board of the termination.

8 4. The defaulting state is responsible for all assessments, obligations, and 9 liabilities incurred through the effective date of termination, including any 10 obligations the performance of which extends beyond the effective date of 11 termination.

12 5. The interstate commission shall not bear any costs relating to the defaulting 13 state unless otherwise mutually agreed upon between the interstate commission and 14 the defaulting state.

15 6. Reinstatement following termination of any compacting state requires both 16 a reenactment of the compact by the defaulting state and the approval of the 17 interstate commission under the rules.

18 (c) Judicial enforcement. The interstate commission may, by majority vote of 19 the members, initiate legal action in the U.S. district court for the District of 20 Columbia, or, at the discretion of the interstate commission, in the federal district 21 court for the district in which the interstate commission has its offices, to enforce 22 compliance with the provisions of the compact and duly promulgated rules and 23 bylaws against any compacting state in default. In the event judicial enforcement 24 is necessary, the prevailing party shall be awarded all costs of such litigation, 25 including reasonable attorney fees.

ASSEMBLY BILL 481

1 (d) Dissolution of compact. 1. The compact dissolves effective upon the date 2 of the withdrawal or default of the compacting state that reduces membership in the 3 compact to one compacting state.

4 2. Upon the dissolution of this compact, the compact becomes null and void and 5 shall be of no further force or effect, the business and affairs of the interstate 6 commission shall be wound up, and any surplus funds shall be distributed in 7 accordance with the bylaws.

8 (13) ARTICLE XIII – CONSTRUCTION. The provisions of this compact shall be 9 liberally constructed to effectuate its purposes.

10 (14) ARTICLE XIV – BINDING EFFECT OF COMPACT AND OTHER LAWS. (a) Other 11 laws. 1. Nothing in this compact prevents the enforcement of any other law of a 12 compacting state that is not inconsistent with this compact.

13 2. All compacting states' laws conflicting with this compact are superseded to 14 the extent of the conflict.

15 (b) Binding effect of the compact. 1. All lawful actions of the interstate 16 commission, including all rules and bylaws promulgated by the interstate 17 commission, are binding upon the compacting states.

18 2. All agreements between the interstate commission and the compacting 19 states are binding in accordance with their terms.

20 3. Upon the request of a party to a conflict over meaning or interpretation of 21 interstate commission actions, and upon a majority vote of the compacting states, the 22 interstate commission may issue advisory opinions regarding such meaning or 23 interpretation.

24 4. In the event that any provision of this compact exceeds the constitutional 25 limits imposed on the legislature of any compacting state, the obligations, duties,

1 powers, or jurisdiction sought to be conferred by such provision upon the interstate 2 commission shall be ineffective, and such obligations, duties, powers, or jurisdiction 3 shall remain in the compacting state and shall be exercised by the agency thereof to 4 which such obligations, duties, powers, or jurisdiction are delegated by law in effect 5 at the time that this compact becomes effective.

6 (15) ARTICLE XV – SHORT TITLE. This section may be cited as the “Interstate 7 Compact for Adult Offender Supervision.”
