Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This revisor's revision bill is explained in the NOTES provided by the revisor of statutes in the body of the bill. In statutes in which "blank" is used to mean a printed document with blank spaces left for the entry of information, "blank" is replaced with the more common "form" for the purpose of modernizing language and providing consistency throughout the statutes. In accordance with a change in drafting style, commas after the last item in a series are added throughout this bill. "Which" is replaced by "that" where grammatically correct. This bill is not intended to make any substantive changes.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Hi Bruce:

LRB 5080/P2 is on its way.

In a few cases changes that we discussed via the marked-up copy of the /P1 version have not been made in exactly the form that we discussed. This was the result of accomodating changes that our attorneys made. (I made sure that the attorneys also reviewed the results of combining your changes with theirs.)

Also, on page 40, line 2, of the /P2 version, would you consider leaving the original phrase "of a nature of" in place? The proposed replacement, "of a nature as," sounds as archaic as the original, and I'm not sure whether the word "as" is used correctly.

Bruce:

Before deleting "Saturday half days" from the definition of "part time for the day" in s. 102.11 (1) (a) 2., I would suggest that you consult with Attorney Dick Smith (7-6704), Legal Counsel for the Worker's Compensation Division of DWD. There may be some significance to "Saturday half days" of which you and I, as drafters and revisors, are not aware.
