Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

This bill would create language specifying that it would not be employment discrimination for an educational agency to refuse to employ or to terminate from employment an individual who has been convicted of a felony and who has not been pardoned for that felony, whether or not the circumstances of the felony substantially relate to the circumstances of the particular job. The bill's definition of an "educational agency" includes state correctional institutions and juvenile secured correctional facilities which are both part of the Department of Corrections.

Since the Department of Corrections currently may refuse to employ or to terminate from employment an individual who has been convicted of a felony, misdemeanor, or other offense if the circumstances of the conviction are substantially related to the circumstances of the particular job, this bill is not likely to have any fiscal impact on the Department of Corrections.
