Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate:
This bill would provide a sales and use tax ex August 1 to September 15 each year. This e	xemption for estimate ass	sales of cloth umes that the	ing and shoes costing les temporary exemption firs	ss than $100 from at occurs in 2001.
According to the Survey of Current Business $307 billion in 1999. According to the Decenshoes is estimated to rise by 10.8% between estimated to be $340.3 billion ($307 billion X Assuming Wisconsin's share of these sales in	nber 2000 D i 1999 and 2 1.108). s equal to its	RI forecast of 001; thus, nat	the U.S. economy, constitutional clothing and shoe so onal personal income, or	umption of clothing and ales in 2001 are 1.85%, sales of clothing and shoes in the state are estimated There are no data available indicating the sh	are of sales	for items cost	ing less than $100. It is a	assumed that 75% of sales would satisfy this threshold. Further, it period in which the exemption is in effect. The which the temporary exemption would occur, some of their purchases into the exemption in $785 million ($6,280 million X 0.75 X 0.167). tax is estimated to be approximately $39 million assumption as to the portion of sales attribute 80%, rather than 75%, of sales qualify for the	is assumed his fraction is reflecting the period. Thus The state reion ($785 million) able to clothe exemption,	that one-sixth larger than the belief that come s, sales qualify evenue loss from llion X 0.05). ng and shoes the estimated	of annual sales would fance period of time, one-eigonsumers would choose ring for the exemption are om exempting these sale. This estimate is highly seed to costing less than $100. It revenue loss would be $100.	hth of the year, in to delay or advance estimated to be s from the 5% sales ensitive to the If it is assumed that 33 million higher.
County and Southeast Wisconsin and Brown sales tax revenues. Thus, the revenue loss ($39 millon X 0.07064).	County stac	lium sales tax ents with a loc	tes in 2001 are estimated cal sales tax is estimated	to be 7.064% of state to be $2.75 million
