2 information on credit and debit card receipts.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill prohibits a person who sells goods at retail or who sells services from including certain information on a sales receipt if the receipt is for a purchase made with the use of a credit or debit card. The bill specifies that the seller may not include more than five digits of the credit or debit card number on the receipt. The bill does not apply to a person who issues a handwritten receipt or a receipt that is manually prepared by making an imprint of a credit or debit card. The prohibition under the bill does not take effect until the first day of the 37th month beginning after the bill becomes law.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

3 SECTION 1. 134.74 of the statutes is created to read:
4 134.74 Nondisclosure of information on receipts. (1) In this section:
5 (a) "Credit card" has the meaning given in s. 421.301 (15).
