

2001 SENATE BILL 332

November 27, 2001 - Introduced by Senator BRESKE, cosponsored by Representative D. MEYER. Referred to Committee on Insurance, Tourism, and Transportation.

1 AN ACT relating to: overpayment of state transit operating aids to the city of 2 Rhineland.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, the department of transportation (DOT) provides state aid payments to local public bodies under the urban mass transit operating assistance program. Recipients of such aid payments are required to repay DOT for any overpayments under the program. This bill requires DOT to waive repayment by the city of Rhineland for any overpayment of aid for calendar years 1997 through 1999.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

3 SECTION 1. Nonstatutory provisions.

4 (1) OVERPAYMENT OF STATE TRANSIT OPERATING AIDS. Notwithstanding section
5 85.20 (4m) (er) of the statutes, the department of transportation shall waive
6 repayment by the city of Rhineland of any outstanding balance of overpayments

SENATE BILL 332

1 of state transit operating aids distributed by the department to the city for the 2 calendar years 1997 through 1999.
