* In reviewing 2003 AB 897 I discovered a slight discrepancy relating to the effective date of the Manufactured Housing Code Council (council). Specifically, the bill provides for an immediate effective date for the rule-making process under SECTION 63 (1) of the bill to begin, but not for the creation of the council, thereby placing the creation of the council under the general effective date of the bill, which is the 18th month beginning after publication or December 1, 2005, whichever occurs first.

An immediate effective date for the council is necessary, however, because the council will be involved in the rule-making process, but the council cannot participate in that process if it is not authorized to come into existence until sometime in 2005. Accordingly, this amendment provides for an immediate effective date for the creation of the council.

Also, due to the passage of time, the expiration dates for the initial terms of the council members are outdated. Accordingly, this amendment sets those dates back by one year.

If you have any questions about this amendment, please do not hesitate to contact me directly at the phone number or e-mail address listed below.
