 6 candidates for the office of lieutenant governor and filling vacancies in certain 7 nominations.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, a candidate for the nomination of a major party (a party which is entitled by law to a separate ballot or column on the ballot) for the office of lieutenant governor may file nomination papers at the same time as candidates for other state partisan offices. At the September primary, electors may vote for a candidate for the office of lieutenant governor separately from candidates for other offices within their preferred party. The winning candidate for the office of lieutenant governor within each party at the primary is then placed on the ballot at the general election, along with the party's winning candidate for the office of governor. The electors voting at the general election then cast one vote for the offices of governor and lieutenant governor, jointly. A candidate for the office of lieutenant governor must receive at least 6% of the vote cast on all ballots for all candidates for that office in the September primary to qualify for a grant from the Wisconsin election campaign fund. Minor party or independent candidates for the office of governor or lieutenant governor may file nomination papers with or without a running mate and may appear on the primary and general election ballots in the same manner as major party candidates.

SENATE BILL 18

This bill changes the procedure for nominating a major party candidate for the office of lieutenant governor. Under the bill, a major party candidate for the office of lieutenant governor does not file nomination papers and does not appear on the primary ballot. Rather, each major party candidate for the office of governor must certify the name of a candidate for the office of lieutenant governor within two days after official certification of the gubernatorial candidate's nomination at the September primary. The certified candidate for the office of lieutenant governor then has three days after receipt of the certification to file a declaration of candidacy, a statement of economic interests and, if the candidate has not already done so, a financial registration. The certified candidate for the office of lieutenant governor is then placed on the general election ballot along with the gubernatorial candidate who certified his or her name. For purposes of qualifying for a grant from the Wisconsin election campaign fund, a major party candidate for the office of lieutenant governor is considered to receive the same percentage of the September primary vote as the candidate for the office of governor who certifies his or her name. In addition, contributions received by the candidate for the office of governor in excess of those needed for the candidate for the office of governor to qualify for a grant may be used to qualify the candidate for the office of lieutenant governor for a grant. Minor party and independent candidates for the office of lieutenant governor continue to be nominated on nomination papers and appear on the primary ballot as currently provided.

Currently, a person who files nomination papers and qualifies to appear on the ballot may not decline nomination. However, if a candidate dies before the election, the chairperson of the state party committee, the chairperson of the county party committee, or the former candidate's personal campaign committee generally may nominate a person to fill the vacancy in nomination, depending upon the former candidate's party affiliation and the office for which the candidate was nominated. This bill allows a major party candidate for the office of lieutenant governor who is also nominated for another elective office to decline one of the nominations. In addition, the bill utilizes the existing procedure for filling a vacancy in nomination caused by the death of a candidate to fill a vacancy in nomination caused by a major party candidate for the office of lieutenant governor declining a nomination.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SENATE BILL 18

1 5.62 (1) (a) At September primaries, the following ballot shall be provided for 2 the nomination of candidates of recognized political parties for national, state and

5 by the board under s. 7.08 (1) (a), except as authorized in s. 5.655. The ballots shall 6 be made up of the several party tickets with each party entitled to participate in the 7 primary under par. (b) or sub. (2) having its own ballot, except as authorized in s.
8 5.655. The independent candidates for state office other than district attorney shall 9 have a separate ballot for all such candidates as under s. 5.64 (1) (e), except as 10 authorized in s. 5.655. The ballots shall be secured together at the bottom. The party 11 ballot of the party receiving the most votes for president or governor at the last 12 general election shall be on top with the other parties arranged in descending order
13 based on their vote for president or governor at the last general election. The ballots 14 of parties qualifying under sub. (2) shall be placed after the parties qualifying under 15 par. (b), in the same order in which the parties filed petitions with the board. Any 16 ballot required under par. (b) 2. shall be placed next in order. The ballot listing the 17 independent candidates shall be placed at the bottom. At polling places where voting
