Senator Chvala would like to sign on to LRB 0815, and he wondered whether he could introduce a Senate companion bill. We were contacted last Friday by a constituent whose employer will not let him leave work when called to respond to an emergency, and were about to have a similar bill drafted.

MEMORANDUM

To: All Legislators
From: John Ainsworth
Date: January 13, 2003
Re: L.R.B. 0815 - Employment discrimination against volunteer firefighters & EMT's

Co-Sponsor Deadline - January 27, 2003-----

Current law prohibits discrimination in employment on the basis of age, race, creed, color, disability, marital status, sex, national origin, ancestry, sexual orientation, arrest record, conviction record, membership in the national guard, state defense force, or military reserves, or use or nonuse of a lawful product off the employer's premises during nonworking hours. Current law also specifies that employment discrimination because of creed or disability includes refusing to reasonably accommodate the religious observance or practice or disability of an employee or prospective employee unless the employer can demonstrate that the accommodation would pose an undue hardship on the employer's program, enterprise, or business.

This bill prohibits discrimination in employment based on temporary absence from work while responding to an emergency call as a volunteer firefighter, emergency medical technician, first responder, or ambulance driver, except that the bill permits a political subdivision of this state to discriminate on that basis if the political subdivision operates a full-time, paid fire department or rescue squad. The bill specifies that employment discrimination on that basis includes refusing to reasonably accommodate the temporary absence of an employee or prospective employee from work while responding to an emergency call as a volunteer firefighter, emergency medical technician, first responder, or ambulance driver unless the employer can demonstrate that the accommodation would pose an undue hardship on the employer's program, enterprise, or business. Under the bill, an employer may reasonably accommodate a temporary absence from work for that purpose by temporarily reallocating job duties, adjusting or modifying the employer's attendance policies, or making other, similar accommodations for the employee or prospective employee, when considered in light of various factors such as the nature and cost of the accommodation, the overall financial resources of the employer and of the facility involved in providing the accommodation, the number of persons employed by the employer and by the facility, and the type of operation of the employer. The bill also specifies that, if providing the accommodation would result in more than 25% of the persons normally on duty in any particular function or operation at the time of the accommodation being temporarily absent from work, it is presumed that the accommodation would pose an unreasonable hardship on the employer's program, business or enterprise.

If you would like to co-sponsor LRB 0815, please respond via e-mail or telephone my office at 266-3097 by January 27, 2003.

2003 BILL

Reyer

1 AN ACT to amend 111.31 (1), 111.31 (2), 111.31 (3), 111.321 and 111.322 (intro.);
2 and to create 111.32 (4r), 111.32 (7g) and 111.365 of the statutes; relating to:
3 employment discrimination because of temporary absence from work while
4 responding to an emergency call as a volunteer fire fighter, emergency medical
5 technician, first responder, or ambulance driver.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Current law prohibits discrimination in employment on the basis of age, race, creed, color, disability, marital status, sex, national origin, ancestry, sexual orientation, arrest record, conviction record, membership in the national guard, state defense force, or military reserves, or use or nonuse of a lawful product off the employer's premises during nonworking hours. Current law also specifies that employment discrimination because of creed or disability includes refusing to reasonably accommodate the religious observance or practice or disability of an employee or prospective employee unless the employer can demonstrate that the accommodation would pose an undue hardship on the employer's program, enterprise, or business.

This bill prohibits discrimination in employment based on temporary absence from work while responding to an emergency call as a volunteer fire fighter, emergency medical technician, first responder, or ambulance driver, except that the bill permits a political subdivision of this state to discriminate on that basis if the political subdivision operates a full-time, paid fire department or rescue squad. The bill specifies that employment discrimination on that basis includes refusing to reasonably accommodate the temporary absence of an employee or prospective employee from work while responding to an emergency call as a volunteer fire fighter, emergency medical technician, first responder, or ambulance driver unless the employer can demonstrate that the accommodation would pose an undue hardship on the employer's program, enterprise, or business. Under the bill, an employer may reasonably accommodate a temporary absence from work for that purpose by temporarily reallocating job duties, adjusting or modifying the employer's attendance policies, or making other, similar accommodations for the employee or prospective employee. The bill defines "undue hardship" as significant difficulty or expense, with respect to an accommodation for an employee or prospective employee, when considered in light of various factors such as the nature and cost of the accommodation, the overall financial resources of the employer and of the facility involved in providing the accommodation, the number of persons employed by the employer and by the facility, and the type of operation of the employer. The bill also specifies that, if providing the accommodation would result in more than 25% of the persons normally on duty in any particular function or operation at the time of the accommodation being temporarily absent from work, it is presumed that the accommodation would pose an unreasonable hardship on the employer's program, business, or enterprise.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

21 fire fighter, emergency medical technician, first responder, or ambulance driver and 22 to encourage the full, nondiscriminatory utilization of the productive resources of the 23 state to the benefit of the state, the family, and all the people of the state. It is the 24 intent of the legislature in promulgating this subchapter to encourage employers to 25 evaluate an employee or applicant for employment based upon the ~~employee's or~~

BILL

1 applicant's individual qualifications of the employee or applicant rather than upon
2 a particular class to which the individual may belong.

3 SECTION 3. 111.31 (3) of the statutes is amended to read:

4 111.31 (3) In the interpretation and application of this subchapter, and
5 otherwise, it is declared to be the public policy of the state to encourage and foster
6 to the fullest extent practicable the employment of all properly qualified individuals
7 regardless of age, race, creed, color, disability, marital status, sex, national origin,

11 employer's premises during nonworking hours, or temporary absence from work 12 while responding to an emergency call as a volunteer fire fighter, emergency medical 13 technician, first responder, or ambulance driver. Nothing in this subsection requires
14 an affirmative action program to correct an imbalance in the work force. This 15 subchapter shall be liberally construed for the accomplishment of this purpose.

16 SECTION 4. 111.32 (4r) of the statutes is created to read:

21 SECTION 6. 111.321 of the statutes is amended to read:

22 111.321 Prohibited bases of discrimination. Subject to ss. 111.33 to ~~111.36~~
23 111.365, no employer, labor organization, employment agency, licensing agency, or

7 SECTION 7. 111.322 (intro.) of the statutes is amended to read:

8 111.322 Discriminatory actions prohibited. (intro.) Subject to ss. 111.33
9 to ~~111.36~~ 111.365, it is an act of employment discrimination to do any of the following:

15 the following factors:

16 ~~(1)~~ ^{plain} 1. The nature and cost of the accommodation.

17 ~~(2)~~ ^{plain} 2. The overall financial resources of the facility involved in providing the

1 employer of the facility involved in providing the accommodation, and the
2 administrative and financial relationship of that facility to the employer.

3 (b) Employment discrimination because of temporary absence from work while
4 responding to an emergency call as a volunteer fire fighter, emergency medical
5 technician, first responder, or ambulance driver includes refusing to reasonably
6 accommodate the temporary absence of an employee or prospective employee from
7 work while responding to an emergency call as a volunteer fire fighter, emergency
8 medical technician, first responder, or ambulance driver unless the employer can 9 demonstrate that the accommodation would pose an undue hardship on the 10 employer's program, enterprise, or business. If providing the accommodation would 11 result in more than 25% of the persons normally on duty in any particular function
12 or operation at the time of the accommodation being temporarily absent from work, 13 it is presumed that the accommodation would pose an undue hardship on the 14 employer's program, enterprise, or business. An employer may reasonably
15 accommodate the temporary absence of an employee or prospective employee from
16 work while responding to an emergency call as a volunteer fire fighter, emergency
17 medical technician, first responder, or ambulance driver by temporarily reallocating
18 job duties, adjusting or modifying the employer's attendance policies, or making
19 other, similar accommodations for the employee or prospective employee.

20 (2) Notwithstanding s. 111.322, it is not employment discrimination because 21 of absence from work while responding to an emergency call as a volunteer fire
22 fighter, emergency medical technician, first responder, or ambulance driver for a 23 political subdivision of this state that operates a full-time, paid fire department or 24 a full-time, paid rescue squad to refuse to hire or employ an individual, to suspend

SECTION 9. Initial applicability.

6 (1) This act first applies to an employee who is affected by a collective
7 bargaining agreement that contains provisions inconsistent with this act on the day
8 on which the collective bargaining agreement expires or is extended, modified, or 9 renewed, whichever occurs first.
