Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

With limited exceptions, current law requires the Department of Transportation (DOT) to take a photograph of all applicants for an operator's license or identification card. DOT may keep copies of the photographs for its own use but generally must keep the photographs confidential. However, DOT may release a photograph to the individual whose photograph was taken. In addition, DOT may, under certain circumstances, release a copy of a photograph taken on or after September 1, 1997, to a Wisconsin law enforcement agency or to a law enforcement agency of a physically adjacent state. Beginning on January 1, 2003, DOT may not release photographs to any person other than the subject of the photograph.

DOT may release a copy of a photograph to a Wisconsin law enforcement agency only if the agency submits a written request specifying the name of the person whose photograph is requested and stating that the photograph is requested for the purpose of investigating unlawful activity, looking for a missing person, or identifying an accident victim or a deceased person. DOT may provide a copy of the photograph to a law enforcement agency of a physically adjacent state if the agency makes a written request in the same manner as a Wisconsin law enforcement agency and if the physically adjacent state provides Wisconsin law enforcement agencies with access to similar information.

If a law enforcement agency receives a copy of a photograph from DOT, the agency must keep the copy of the photograph confidential and may disclose it only if necessary to perform a law enforcement function. When the copy of the photograph is no longer necessary for the investigatory or identification purpose specified in the request for a copy of the photograph, the law enforcement agency must destroy any copies of the photograph in its possession.

This bill allows DOT to release a copy of a photograph to any state or federal law enforcement agency if the law enforcement agency makes a written request in the same manner as a Wisconsin law enforcement agency. The same restrictions regarding the use and possession of a released photograph that apply to Wisconsin law enforcement agencies also apply to the other state's law enforcement agency and the federal law enforcement agency requesting a photograph from DOT.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
