

DRAFTER'S NOTE
FROM THE
LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE BUREAU

LRBs0088/1dn
RLR:jld:jf

June 10, 2003

John:

Senate Bill 132 requires a presumptive minimum sentence of two years "imprisonment" for a juvenile who is convicted in adult court for violating the prohibition against throwing a bodily substance while placed in a secured facility. A term of imprisonment consists of both a term of confinement in prison and a term of extended supervision. Instead of requiring a presumptive term of "imprisonment," this substitute amendment requires a presumptive 18-month term of confinement in prison, the maximum term of confinement in prison permitted for a violation of the prohibition against throwing bodily substances.
