Senator Lazich:

Please note that if a court invalidates the sunset of the sales and use tax under s. 77.707 (1), as amended by the substitute amendment, the court may sever s. 77.707 (1) from the other provisions of the substitute amendment as provided under s. 990.001 (11), which reads as follows:

“SEVERABILITY. The provisions of the statutes are severable. The provisions of any session law are severable. If any provision of the statutes or of a session law is invalid, or if the application of either to any person or circumstance is invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application.”
